

FINE ARTS MINOR

Humanities Division/St. Thomas Aquinas College 10/10

A Fine Arts Minor is suggested as a complementary course of study to any major where a knowledge and appreciation of art and visual culture would be valuable, such as romance languages, English, natural sciences, business, philosophy, and communication arts.

The Fine Arts Minor serves the needs of students who wish to experience the joy and discovery of creation in the studio, the give and take of critique and the rewards of developing a personal sensibility in the arts.
