

RELIGIOUS STUDIES MINOR
Humanities Division/St. Thomas Aquinas College 10/11

Religious Studies examines the religious traditions of the world. It explores sacred literary texts, ritual experiences, and historical traditions seeking to understand the varieties of religious experience and the values and ultimate concerns that shape human life.

Required Courses (9 credits)

RELS 101 Introduction to Religion _____ (Enrollment in this course is strongly recommended prior to taking 200-400 level courses.)

RELS 103 Hebrew Scriptures _____
OR
RELS 104 New Testament

RELS 220 Religions of the West _____
OR
RELS 221 Religions of the East

Electives (9 credits)

Three courses in Religious Studies _____

