ST. THOMAS TO HOST ECONOMIC FORUM

(SPARKILL, NY – OCTOBER 17, 2008) – St. Thomas Aquinas College will host an economic forum with a presentation on “Well Being and Economic Growth” on Saturday, October 25 at 12:00pm, announced Mr. Michael Murphy, Division Chair of Business Administration.

“This forum is the second of a series of events to examine current conditions in the business environment,” commented Alan Colsey, director of the M.B.A. Program. “It should be most informative and provide an interesting view of significant issues impacting economic growth.”

The discussion will feature a presentation from Dr. Nikolaos Papavlassopoulos, Associate Professor of Finance and Business Administration and Dr. David Keppler, Associate Professor of Philosophy.

Participants will have an opportunity to join the discussion through a question and answer period following their presentation. The event will be held on the St. Thomas Aquinas College campus in Costello Hall. This event is free and open to the community.

For more information, please contact Mr. Michael Murphy at or e-mail mmurphy@stac.edu.
