ST. THOMAS APPOINTS NEW TRUSTEE KEVIN M. HALLINAN JOINS COLLEGE BOARD

(SPARKILL, NY – September 22, 2008) – Kevin M. Hallinan, vice president of Royal Diamond Security International has been named to the St. Thomas Aquinas College Board of Trustees, announced Dr. Margaret M. Fitzpatrick, S.C., College President.

Mr. Hallinan has over 40 years of security and facility management experience. Since 1986, he served as senior vice president of security and facility management for Major League Baseball where he managed the full range of security resources for all thirty Major League Baseball clubs. He conducted numerous investigations relative to due diligence or misconduct deemed a threat to the integrity of Baseball including the “Pete Rose Investigation.” Prior to his work with MLB, Mr. Hallinan was the co-commander of the F.B.I. /N.Y.P.D. Joint Terrorism Task Force.

“I am honored to be appointed to serve on the Board of Trustees of St. Thomas Aquinas College,” said Hallinan “I have long admired the outstanding work of the school and the accomplishments of its students, many of whom have become leaders in diverse areas of education and business. I look forward to working with the outstanding leadership at St. Thomas along with the talented group of professionals currently serving on the Board of Trustees.”

He is the recipient of the United States Attorney General Award for Exceptional Public Service. Now running his own business, Mr. Hallinan recently signed working agreements with several firms and universities on security and safety education programs.

Mr. Hallinan is a graduate of Fordham University and the F.B.I. National Academy. He has studied at New York Institute of Technology for a Masters Degree in Communications. He holds and honorary doctor of law degree from Dominican College. Mr. Hallinan currently resides in Rockland County, NY.
