STAC HOSTS FIRST ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL ART SHOW

Exhibit features the talents of local high school students in varied forms

(SPARKILL, NY, May 27, 2009) – St. Thomas Aquinas College’s Azarian-McCullough Art Gallery (“AMAG”) announces its newest exhibit "First Annual High School Art Show" featuring work from almost 30 students from local high schools. The show is Saturday, May 30 and Sunday, May 31 from 1:00pm-4:00pm.

Artists from local high schools including Albertus Magnus High School, Clarkstown South High School, Pearl River High School, Ramapo High School and Spring Valley High School will be featured in the exhibit. The works on display feature various media including drawings, prints, paintings, and masks. Students were selected by the high school art faculty.

Daly Flanagan, School Director at Rockland Center for the Arts and adjunct professor at the College served as curator for the exhibit. The show is open and free to the community, light refreshments will be served. For regular gallery hours, call the Azarian-McCullough Art Gallery at 845-398-4195.
