HISTORICAL INFORMATION

STAC HISTORY
In 1952, The Board of Regents of the State of New York granted a Provisional Charter to the Dominican Sisters of Sparkill to operate a three-year elementary teacher education program under the corporate title of St. Thomas Aquinas College. This Charter was later amended in 1957 so that the College might conduct courses leading to the Bachelor of Science in Education Degree for members of the Sparkill Congregation. In 1958, the College graduated its first class into the ranks of the alumni - 30 strong!

In 1960, the Provisional Charter was made absolute and the College was empowered to grant the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Science in Education as well as to admit other religious women and lay-women. In 1967, the College was granted the Charter amendment to open its doors as a coeducational institution.

In 1981, the College was granted a Charter amendment to offer the associate in arts and associate in science degrees at the United States Military Academy at West Point. The program was designed and implemented at the Army's request for enlisted military personnel, officers, spouses and dependents and civilian employees at the military base at West Point and the Stewart Army Subpost.

In 1985, the New York State Education Department authorized St. Thomas Aquinas College to confer the Master of Science in Education on duly qualified students completing the registered programs and, simultaneously, approved the first graduate program in special education. Additional programs, in elementary education, in secondary education and in reading, leading to the degree of Master of Science in Education (M.S. in Ed.) as well as a Certificate of Advanced Study (CAS) leading to provisional certification (PreK-6, and 7-12) were authorized in May 1992. The CAS was superseded by the MST in 2002.

In 1994, the New York State Education Department authorized St. Thomas Aquinas College to confer the Masters of Business Administration in Business Administration, on duly qualified students completing the registered program with concentrations in finance, marketing or management. Five-year dual degree programs in engineering are offered cooperatively with The George Washington University in Washington, D.C., and Manhattan College in New York City. The College also has a dual degree program in podiatry in cooperation with the New York College of Podiatric Medicine. In 1995, the College started a five-year program, and currently (since 2002) offers a seven-year program that culminates with a Doctor of Physical Therapy from New York Medical College. In 1996, St. Thomas signed an articulation agreement with New York Chiropractic College which enables students to earn a B. S. in Biology from St. Thomas, and a Doctor of Chiropractic (D.C.) from NYCC.

St. Thomas students can now study in a variety of countries, including England, Ireland, Hungary, Italy and Japan, and in 1997, the College entered a partnership with the High Technology School in Morocco, establishing an MBA site in Rabat. The College assists students in arranging study abroad opportunities.

In 2002 a Master of Science in Teaching (MST) leading to initial certification (Grades 1-6 or 7-12) was approved by New York State, and in 2006, a Master of Science in Education in Educational Leadership leading to School Building Leader certification was approved.

Since 1997, the College has formed additional strategic alliances with a number of institutions of higher education in transfer and cooperative degree programs. The following institutions in the area have entered into transfer agreements with St. Thomas Aquinas College: SUNY Rockland, SUNY Orange, SUNY Dutchess, SUNY Hudson Valley, and SUNY Nassau Community Colleges; CUNY Queensborough Community College; and Bergen Community College. The College also has articulation agreements with the following comprehensive undergraduate and graduate degree programs: Barry University's School of Law; Catholic University of America (MA in English); Iona College (BA/MA in History); Marist College (MS in Psychology); New York University's School of Social Work (accelerated BS/MSW on the STAC campus); Pace University (MS in Counseling); Polytechnic University (BS/MS in Biomedical Engineering); Seton Hall University (MA in Corporate and Public Relations); St. John's University (BS,BA/MLS on the STAC campus; advanced standing agreements in graduate Biology, English, History, Math & Computer Science, Sociology, Spanish and Theology/Religious Studies); and St. John's University School of Law.

We now offer a total of 100 majors, minors, specializations and dual degree programs for our students. Our enrollment grew 100% in just 20 years and our physical plant has grown from 23 to 60 acres. These strides, as well as all of the new projects on campus, speak of PROGRESS and we are proud of it. Yet our success and progress is a reflection of those very people we aim to serve — our students.

MISSION

St. Thomas Aquinas College is an independent liberal arts college, which provides education at the undergraduate and graduate levels for students from all traditions. In continuing its Catholic heritage and the spirit of its founders, the Dominican Sisters of Sparkill, the College is committed to the principle of enlightening the mind through truth, as exemplified by Thomas Aquinas, and to the Classical and Judeo-Christian ideals which have contributed to the development of humanity. Accordingly, the College is dedicated to the development of each student consistent with the individual’s resolve to work and ability to achieve.

Consistent with its commitments, the College requires each undergraduate to attain a broad foundation in the liberal arts and sciences. Within this environment, St. Thomas Aquinas College assists each student in the effort to develop as an articulate and independent member of society who uses a reasoned approach to all issues, who strives to become a responsible citizen and leader in shaping the diverse world community, who lives in a manner exemplifying the principles of service, mutual respect, and individual responsibility, and who appreciates the value of learning as a life-long endeavor.

He/she shall first consult the instructor for an explanation of the grade. If the student is not satisfied at this level, he/she may consult the appropriate Dean of the School where the course is housed who - after consultation with the instructor - may or may not recommend that the grade be changed. If the student remains dissatisfied, he/she may submit the appeal in writing to the Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs. All work required for removal of an “Incomplete” must be submitted by the date stipulated by the faculty member, but not later than one month prior to the last day of class of the following semester, or the “Incomplete” becomes an “F”. Incompletes are given at the discretion of the faculty member. No grade higher than a B may be awarded except for internships, practicum or extenuating circumstances.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The Office of Career Development is a component of the Office for Student Development. We are located on the upper level of the Romano Student Alumni Center and are open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday, & 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Fridays, when the college is open. To make an appointment, please call 845-398-4065.

Career Development provides the opportunity for students to develop life long career exploration skills. The focal point of Career Development is to help STAC students in identifying their plans and provide them with the skills needed for job procurement. Our belief is that the job search process is most productive when one is clear about interests, values, skills and goals. Career Development does not provide academic advisement, nor does Career Development place students in jobs or internships. Career Development does collect and advertise job and internship opportunities that come into the office through an online system - SpartanJobs.

Students are strongly encouraged to visit the Career Development Office early in their academic career to meet with a Career Counselor. The staff guides students in their search to answer questions and helps them to identify other resources that will assist in career development. Career planning emphasizes goal clarification and career exploration. Students who are uncertain about their career directions or about their interests, skills and values will be assisted in clarifying their thinking and explore pertinent options.

Career Counseling
Individual career counseling is available on an appointment basis. In career counseling, each student has the opportunity to evaluate his/her skills, values, talents, and interests in terms of possible career opportunities. Career Development administers career assessment inventories in order to assist in selecting an appropriate academic major and to help determine career options. Career information is available in the Career Resource Center to supplement the student's self-evaluation.

On-Campus Recruiting
Representatives of business and industry visit St. Thomas Aquinas College to recruit for professional, seasonal, part-time, and internship positions during the academic year. Career Development also hosts annual Job and Internship Fairs during the Academic Year.

Workshops & Professional Credentials
Career Development offers a variety of workshops including: Social Media For The Job Hunt, Welcome To The Real World, Effective Resume and Cover Letter Writing, Dining Etiquette, Mock Interview programs and more. Students are encouraged to participate in these workshops and seminars to improve their career development skills. Information is available regarding the application process for Graduate and Professional School.

Job Listings and SpartanJobs
Detailed information about all Job and Internship opportunities can be obtained on SpartanJobs. SpartanJobs is a valuable career resource and online tool that showcases various career opportunities. All students are encouraged to create their online professional profile as early as freshmen year. All Resident Students are required to complete their SpartanJobs profile prior to residing on campus.

Benefits of SpartanJobs registration include 24 hour web based access to:
- Search and view employers, jobs, internships, scholarships, and fellowships.
- Post and send resumes to employers.
- Create a career portfolio containing your resume, cover letter, transcripts, writing samples, and more.
- Register for resume, cover letter and interviewing workshops.
- Stay updated on career opportunities and events.

COUNSELING AND PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES (CAPS)

CAPS Overview and Mission
The Office of Counseling & Psychological Services (CAPS) is a component of the Office of Student Development and offers a wide range of free services to currently enrolled St. Thomas Aquinas College (STAC) students. Services include: time-limited individual psychotherapy; counseling; crisis intervention; preventative outreach programming; consultative services: and Resident Assistant Training. CAPS is located on the upper level of the Romano Student Alumni Center (across from the Campus Bookstore). The Office is open Monday through Friday, 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM, during normal College business hours.

The principal goal of CAPS is to help facilitate student development by providing practical tools and solutions to psychological and psychosocial obstacles that one may encounter while at STAC. CAPS staff utilizes empirically supported methodology to help students become independent and productive in their academic, personal, and professional endeavors. CAPS works collaboratively with Academic Services, Residential Life, Campus Safety, and other College offices. In addition to the aforementioned, CAPS maintains a current database of off-campus mental health providers, should a student require services that are outside the scope of this Office, or to specifically meet an individual’s needs.

Scheduling an Appointment
Appointments may be scheduled in person at the CAPS office. The office is located on the Upper Level of the Romano Student Alumni Center (across from the Campus Bookstore). Students may also call the office at 845-398-4065 to schedule an appointment. Email appointments are discouraged. To facilitate the intake process, students may be asked to go to the CAPS website at, www.stac.edu/psych, click on the "Clinic Forms" link and follow the instructions on the page. Please note that any information that is provided by the individual completing the form is confidential and only accessible to CAPS staff.

Policies, Confidentiality, and Clinical Records
CAPS documents are SEPARATE from a student’s academic/educational records. ONLY CAPS staff has access to them. CAPS will maintain and retain such records in a confidential manner, except in specific situations where disclosure of information is ethically or legally required. The CAPS Office will retain a student’s record(s) in accordance with legal and ethical standards. Aside from the typical limits of confidentiality (outlined below), a student’s clinical records can ONLY be disclosed if an “Authorization to Release Information” form (available at the CAPS Office) is completed by the student. A more thorough disclosure of Policies and Services can be obtained at, www.stac.edu/psych under the “Policies and Confidentiality” section.

Limits of Confidentiality
There are legal and ethical exceptions to confidentiality which require CAPS staff to take responsible action. The exceptions include:

- When there is a clear and present danger of harm to self or another individual. In these circumstances CAPS is legally required to take action to protect life. Actions in these circumstances may include arranging for voluntary or involuntary hospitalization, as well as notifying law enforcement authorities and/or other persons (such as family, friends, and/or individuals at risk) as deemed appropriate.

- When the clinician has reasonable cause to suspect that a minor or elderly individual is being abused or neglected. CAPS is legally required to report the abuse to appropriate county and/or state authorities.

- In the event of a court order or other mandatory legal process, CAPS may be required to release information contained in the student’s records.

Cancelling, Rescheduling, and Missed Appointments
If it is necessary to reschedule or cancel an appointment, the CAPS office please notify the office at least 24 hours in advance. It is the student’s responsibility to reschedule any cancelled or missed appointments. Failure to provide 24 hour cancellation notice or to attend a scheduled appointment may result in a rescheduling delay. Frequent cancellations and/or missed appointments may result in the discontinuation of services and a referral to an outside mental health provider. Exceptions may be made by the Director of CAPS discretion.

Excused Absences/Assignments
The CAPS does not provide excuses for missed classes or assignments.

Electronic Mail Communications
Email communications by students are discouraged for matters involving personal or clinical concerns. Students should be aware that confidentiality of email communications cannot be guaranteed. CAPS staff may not always be capable of receiving e-mail and do not regularly monitor email after normal business hours.
Research and Evaluation
CAPS seeks to evaluate and improve its services to students by conducting research and evaluation projects each year. Staff members conducting research and evaluation projects may also take selected information from a student’s file as a part of a project. This activity would always be anonymous and restricted to information relevant to the specific project identified in the student’s Authorization to Release Information form.

Mental Health Emergency and Crisis Assistance
There is no guarantee that CAPS staff will be available during or outside of normal College operating hours. Should a crisis or emergency situation arise and CAPS staff is not available, students on campus are encouraged to call Campus Safety at extension at 845-398-4080 or 911 for emergency support. On campus residents may also contact a member of the Residence Life staff. Additional mental health emergency and crisis assistance information is available for all students, faculty, and staff at the CAPS website, www.stac.edu/psych, under the “Mental Health Emergency and Crisis Assistance” and “Resources for Faculty/Staff” sections. Additional resources in the community for all students include:

- 911
- Rockland Crisis Services - (845) 364-2200
- Rockland Suicide Hotline - (845) 354-6500
- Bergen County CarePlus NJ -(201) 262-HELP (4357)

CAMPUS MINISTRY AND VOLUNTEER SERVICES
Campus Ministry is focused on four major areas in a student’s life: namely, prayer, faith development, relationships, and service.

* Prayer is at the heart of our campus ministry program. Students are invited to attend services either as a participant or leader. They are also invited to attend interdenominational services that are offered on special occasions. A prayer and meditation space is always available to the students as well as opportunities for developing different ways of praying.

* Faith development comes to the student through many avenues. Retreats provide a special time when students come to a deeper level of faith through prayer and interaction with other students. Students of the Christian faith who may have missed receiving some sacraments may participate in a special sacramental program to prepare them for the reception of sacraments, called RCIA (Revised Christian Initiation for Adults).

* Relationships are a very important part of our life and the Campus Ministry office seeks to offer opportunities for students to connect with other students in a healthy, giving relationship. Through discussion groups, leisure time at the campus ministry area, even in our prayer time and service time, opportunities for making new and lasting friendships are available.

* Service through the campus ministry office is seen as faith in action. There are many service projects for students to experience a passion for lifelong commitment as well as lessons in leadership and life. For students interested in an international service experience there are opportunities during Winter and Summer breaks. For students who would like to help those suffering as a result of a natural disaster, we also provide this opportunity.

The Campus Ministry office, which is located on the lower level of the Romano Student Alumni Center, is staffed by a Director, a Dominican Sister and a Rabbi. Each member of the staff is available to the students for support, conferences, spiritual counseling, help in answering questions about faith and to assist the students in any way possible. Whether you are actively involved in your “home” place of worship or looking to connect with a faith community on campus, we welcome you.

CAMPUS SAFETY AND SECURITY

Working in partnership with the St. Thomas Aquinas College Community to provide a safe and secure learning and living environment for our students, faculty and staff

Campus safety is a “shared responsibility.” St. Thomas Aquinas College is a safe campus in a dangerous world. It takes commitment and dedication by students, faculty and staff to maintain a safe campus. Program the Campus Safety and Security Department Phone Number into your cell phone (845) 398-4080.
Here are three important ways you can help:

* Watch for and report any crimes or suspicious activities;
* Inform yourself about College policies and procedures regarding your safety and well-being as well as state and federal laws;
* Incorporate practical, common-sense safety measures into your daily activities.

Foot and vehicle patrols of campus grounds, buildings and residence halls, designed to detect any crimes in progress, are made 24 hours a day. During these patrols, officers also report any conditions they notice that might pose a threat to campus security.

The Campus Safety and Security Officers are employees of St. Thomas Aquinas College and are supplemented by a contract security agency. All of the Campus Safety Officers are certified NYS Security Guards and maintain certification in first aid and CPR. Many of the officers have additional law enforcement and investigative training and certifications.

St. Thomas Aquinas College Campus Safety and Security Officers have the authority to ask persons for identification and to determine whether individuals have lawful business at St. Thomas Aquinas College. Campus Safety and Security Officers have the authority to issue parking tickets, which are billed to financial accounts of students.

Campus Safety and Security Officers do not possess arrest power. Criminal incidents are referred to the local police who have jurisdiction on campus. While College officers have primary authority to enforce laws within campus boundaries (including all roadways leading into campus), local and state police can enter campus and exercise their authority. The St. Thomas Aquinas College Campus Safety and Security Department maintains a highly professional working relationship with the Orangetown Police Department.

All crime victims and witnesses are strongly encouraged to immediately report the crime to the Campus Safety and Security Department and the appropriate police agency. Prompt reporting will assure timely warning notices on-campus and timely disclosure of crime statistics.

Throughout the year, the Office of Safety and Security sponsors a wide variety of services and educational programs designed to build your awareness of potential safety problems, alert you to any unusual incidents of crime and to offer ways you can help prevent or deter a crime from happening to you.
They include:

* Annual orientation sessions that advise new students on campus safety concerns and familiarize them with the services of the Office of Safety and Security.

* An on-campus safety escort service by safety & security officers, who will walk or drive students and employees to their residence halls and/or cars on an as-needed basis.

* An Emergency phones, which are located on campus in Aquinas Village and the rear of the Fitness Center. These phones automatically link callers to Campus Safety. Take time to learn their locations in case of an emergency.

FIRE ALARM PROCEDURES / FIRE EVACUATION
- R – Rescue and relocate anyone in immediate danger.
- A – Alert others by activating the building fire alarm system and calling 845-398-4080 or extension 4080 using a campus phone from a safe location.
- C – Confine the emergency by closing the doors.
- E – Evacuate immediately. Do not use elevators. Use stairs. If there is smoke in the corridor, stay in room, close and seal doors, call 845-398-4080 or extension 4080 using a campus phone for help, and stand by the windows.

YOUR GOAL IS TO GET OUT SAFELY
If you cannot get out, follow the appropriate steps below

- Before opening any doors, feel the door first. If it is hot, don’t open the door. If it isn't hot, brace yourself against the door, open it slightly, and if heat or heavy smoke is present, close the door and leave by an alternate exit.
- If you can't leave the room, keep the door closed. Open the windows from the top to let out heat and smoke AND from the bottom to let in fresh air. Seal the bottom of your room door and any air vents with a rug, blanket, or towel. Then hang a light colored object (towel, bed sheet, shirt, etc.) out the window to attract the fire department’s attention. If there is a phone in the room, call 845-398-4080 or extension 4080 using a campus phone and report that you are trapped. Be sure to give your building name and location. Do not hang up until the dispatcher tells you to.
- If you can leave the room, leave a light on and close all the doors behind you. Leave all materials in your room or office to avoid wasting time. Take your key in case you cannot reach an exit and you have to return to your room.
- Go to the nearest exit or stairway. If the first exit is blocked, go to an alternate exit or stairway.

- Never use an elevator during a fire emergency. A mechanical or electrical failure could leave you trapped at the fire floor or between floors.
- If you are not able to self-evacuate proceed to an enclosed stairwell if available in your building. If you go to an enclosed stairwell, be sure to position yourself so as not to block or impede pedestrian flow or access to the stairwell.
- If you go to a stairwell or remain in a room, call Campus Safety at 845-398-4080 or extension 4080 using a campus phone, giving your exact location – building, floor and stairwell/room number.
- If all exits are blocked, go back to your room, close the door, and open the window, as previously described.
- Stand clear of the area after evacuating to give emergency apparatus and personnel room to maneuver. Go to a designated meeting area and stay there. If possible, call Campus Safety at 845-398-4080 or extension 4080 using a campus phone from a neighboring area and give as much information as possible.
- Each person not involved in the emergency procedures should follow the directions of the fire department, Campus Safety, and other emergency personnel.
- No persons may re-enter an evacuated building until permitted to do so by Campus Safety.
- Each student and employee has the responsibility of knowing the location of the fire alarm station, fire extinguisher, and primary and secondary exit routes for primary place of occupancy while on College property. Should a fire be discovered or suspected, a fire alarm should be sounded immediately. If time permits, call Campus Safety at 845-398-4080 or extension 4080 using a campus phone and activate the pull station.
- If you discover or suspect a fire, sound the building fire alarm immediately. All fires, even small ones, must be reported to Campus Safety immediately.
- When an alarm sounds, every building occupant shall evacuate the building immediately. Treat every alarm as an actual emergency.
- Be especially aware of handicapped persons in your building. They may need your help to reach a point of safety such as a stairwell. Report to the command post the location of the handicapped individual.
- Rescue others only if you can do so safely.

Pre-Emergency Preparation

- All members of the College community should become thoroughly familiar with their facility and the location of all its exits and areas of refuge.
- They should become familiar with the distinct sound of the fire alarm signal.
- They should seek out volunteers (buddy system) who might be able to assist them in an emergency.
- If wheelchair-confined, they should know the safest method people can use to assist them, and they should know how many people are needed to provide such assistance.
- Every person who is mobility-impaired as well as communication-impaired should place a sign on their wheelchair providing instructions on how they can be assisted. They should carry a loud whistle, horn, or similar device to alert people of their location if they become trapped or isolated.
Assisting an Individual with Disabilities
Under the assumption that Campus Safety will be the first responders to any fire incident, the Campus Safety department should be made aware, on an on-going basis, of those persons with significant physical disabilities working, studying or living in any College facility.

Responsibility of Individuals with Mobility Impairment
It is critical to the health and safety of mobility-impaired persons that they are knowledgeable of their needs during an emergency evacuation. They should be expected to convey these needs to their professor, or supervisor, at the beginning of their employment or academic year. In the event of a fire emergency, an individual with mobility impairment may choose one of the following alternatives:

- Proceed to an enclosed stairwell, accompanied by a partner or “buddy” and wait inside the stairwell. Remain in the stairwell until the responding fire department arrives and safely completes the evacuation.
- Defend in place. Seek refuge in rooms or sections of a building, that by virtue of its construction associated with the location of the fire, will provide a safe area for persons to remain during a fire until rescue is made. The door should be kept closed. If possible, individuals should call Campus Safety to advise them of their location.

Mobility Impaired – Wheelchair
Individuals who use a wheelchair may need to be evacuated with the wheelchair particularly, if they use a respirator. During an emergency evacuation, it is preferable for someone to remain with and assist the non-ambulatory person if the “buddy” can do so safely.

Mobility Impaired – Ambulatory
Individuals who are able to walk independently, either with or without the use of crutches or a cane, and can negotiate stairs in an emergency situation with minor assistance, should wait until heavy pedestrian traffic has cleared before attempting to use the stairways, in the event of imminent danger.

Hearing Impaired
Individuals with hearing impairments may need fire alarm horn/strobe lights installed in their rooms or offices. Staff should be aware of those persons with hearing impairments and should attempt to provide assistance and guidance in the event of an emergency evacuation.

Visually Impaired
Individuals with a visual impairment should become familiar with their immediate surroundings and most frequently traveled routes. In the event of an emergency evacuation, staff or other students should offer to guide an individual with a visual impairment from the building. Special attention should be given to obstacles or route obstructions.

Speech Impaired
Individuals with speech impairment may have difficulty communicating during an emergency evacuation. Ideally, a volunteer or “buddy” capable of communicating with that individual should assist them during the evacuation.
Developmentally Disabled
It is critically important that the designated evacuation route be rehearsed with a developmentally disabled occupant. Ideally, someone capable of communicating effectively with this person should assist them during the evacuation.

Questions?
Contact the Office of Campus Safety at 845-398-4080 or extension 4080 using a campus phone.

PARKING
Parking and operating a motor vehicle on the Saint Thomas Aquinas College (STAC) Campus is a privilege, and constitutes acceptance by the individual of the responsibility to ensure that his or her vehicle is neither parked, nor operated in violation of any of the STAC Regulations. The acceptance of parking privileges and the presence of any vehicle on campus represents an agreement by the motorist that Saint Thomas Aquinas College is in no way liable for personal injury, damage, or lost or stolen parts or contents of the vehicle.

A parking permit allows a student to park on campus, but does not guarantee a parking space. Parking permits must be hung from the driver’s center mirror. The permit is designed that it can be left in place and is not in violation of any NYS Motor Vehicle Laws.

Parking Permit Application
Students, Faculty and Staff that wish to park a vehicle on campus must obtain a STAC Parking Permit from Campus Safety. Application for the permit can be made by going to the Campus Safety Webpage

http://www.stac.edu/security/

After completing the online form you can pickup your parking permit the next business day at Campus Safety. Please bring your STAC Identification Card and vehicle registration. NYU Employees, Students and Faculty please bring a valid driver’s license and the vehicle registration.

REPORTING A CRIME, EMERGENCY OR SAFETY CONCERN

Sex Offender Registration Policy

In accordance to the "Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act" of 2000, which amends the Jacob Wetterling Crimes Against Children and Sexually Violent Offender Registration Act, the Jeanne Clery Act and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the St. Thomas Aquinas College Campus Safety and Security Department is providing a link to the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Sex Offender Registry. This act requires institutions of higher education to issue a statement advising the campus community where law enforcement information provided by a State concerning registered sex offenders may be obtained. It also requires sex offenders already required to register in a State to provide notice of each institution of higher education in that State at which the person is employed, carries a vocation, or is a student.

NYS Division of Criminal Justice - Office of Sex Offender Management
Sex Offender Registry

The New York State Sex Offender Registration Act (Correction Law Article 6-C), known as SORA, established a Sex Offender Registry within the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services. SORA was enacted to assist local law enforcement agencies and to protect communities by: 1) requiring sex offenders to register with the State; and, 2) providing information to the public about certain sex offenders living in their communities. SORA took effect on January 21, 1996.

SORA requires the registration of individuals convicted in New York State of certain sex offenses as well as the registration of those individuals convicted in another jurisdiction if the offense is equivalent to a New York State registerable sex offense. In addition, if the individual is convicted of a felony requiring registration in the conviction jurisdiction, or the individual is convicted of one or more specific federal or military offenses, the individual will be required to register in New York State. Individuals convicted of one or more registerable offenses on or after the effective date of SORA must register with the Division. Additionally, any person convicted of a registerable offense who was incarcerated or under parole or probation supervision on January 21, 1996 is required to be registered.

Sex offenders are classified as either low risk (Level 1), moderate risk (Level 2) or high risk (Level 3). SORA requires the Division of Criminal Justice Services to maintain a public Subdirectory on the internet which can only include Level 2 and Level 3 sex offenders. While the Registry also contains information on low-risk (Level 1) sex offenders, this site provides you with public access to the Subdirectory only. Therefore, accessing this site will not provide you with information about Level 1 offenders. You may, however, learn if an individual is a convicted sex offender listed in the Registry by calling the Sex Offender Registry (800) 262-3257.

Due to litigation in federal court, certain level 2 and level 3 offenders are not in the Subdirectory at this time. Once these offenders have had an opportunity for a due process hearing to determine the risk level, and if their risk level is determined to be level 2 or level 3, they will be included in the Subdirectory.

The New York State’s Sex Offender Registry home page is located at http://criminaljustice.state.ny.us/nsor/index.htm. The Registry helps protect our families and communities by requiring sex offenders to register, and providing this information to law enforcement and the public.

Sex offenders are classified by risk level: Level one (low risk); Level two (medium risk); and Level three (high risk). Level 1 offenders are required to register for a minimum of twenty years, and level 2 and 3 offenders for life. Police and law enforcement have access to information on all sex offenders (levels 1, 2 and 3). However, under the law, information on level 1 (low-risk) offenders is not available on the public website. Only level 2 and 3 offenders are listed on the public website.

How do I search for a sex offender?

To search for a sex offender on line visit the public website - http://criminaljustice.state.ny.us/nsor/index.htm. You can search by last name or zip code or County. You can also call (800) 262-3257. By calling the 800 number you can obtain information on level 1, 2 and 3 offenders (the public website only lists level 2 and 3 offenders, the 800 line can give information on level 1, 2 and 3). If you call the 800 line you will need the offender’s name and one of the following: an exact address, or a date of birth, or a driver’s license number, or a social security number.

Annual Disclosure of Crime Statistics

The St. Thomas Aquinas College Campus Safety and Security Department prepare this report to comply with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act. The full text of this report can be located on our web site at http://www.stac.edu/security/index.html. You will also be able to connect to our site via the STAC Home page at http://www.stac.edu. This report is prepared in cooperation with the local law enforcement agencies surrounding our main campus, Offices of Student Development and Residence Life. Each entity provides updated information on their educational efforts and programs to comply with the Act.

Campus crime, arrest and referral statistics include those reported to the Campus Safety and Security Department, designated campus officials (including but not limited to directors, deans, department heads, designated, judicial affairs, advisors to students/student organizations, athletic coaches), and local law enforcement agencies.

Each year, an e-mail notification is made to all enrolled students, faculty and staff that provides the web site to access this report. TIMELY WARNING POLICY

The St. Thomas Aquinas College Campus Safety and Security Department will post timely warning notices for the College Community to notify members of the community about serious crimes against people that occur on campus, where it determined that the incident may pose an on going threat to members of the STAC community.

The department issues/posts Crime Alerts for incidents of:

1. Murder

2. Aggravated assault (cases involving assaults among known parties, such as two roommates fighting which results in aggravated injury, will be evaluated on a case by case basis to determine if the individual is believed to be an on-going threat to the larger STAC community)

3. Robbery involving force or violence (cases including pick pocketing and purse snatching will typically not result in the issuance of a Crime Alert, but will be assessed on a case by case basis)

4. Sexual Assault (considered on a case by case basis depending on the facts of the case, when the incident occurred verses when it was reported and the amount of information known by STAC Campus Safety & Security Department)

5. Major incidents of arson

6. Other crimes as determined necessary by Vice President of Student Development, Director of Campus Safety and Security Department or Assistant Director of Campus Safety and Security Department

STAC will generate Crime Alerts using the “e2Campus” campus text messaging system or a blast e-mail to the college community or other appropriate means based upon the situation. Crime Alerts may also be posted in campus buildings, where and when deemed appropriate.

The Campus Safety and Security Department does not issue crime alerts for the above listed crimes if:

1. The subject(s) is apprehended and the threat of imminent danger for members of the STAC community has been mitigated by the apprehension.

2. If a report was not filed with the Campus Safety and Security Department or if the Campus Safety and Security Department was not notified by campus officials in a manner that would allow the department to post a “timely” warning for the STAC community. A general guideline will include a report that is filed more than five days after the date of the alleged incident may not allow the department to post a “timely” warning to the community. This type of situation will be evaluated on a case by case basis.
The Campus Safety and Security Department also maintains a daily crime log which is normally updated each business day and contains all crimes reported to the Campus Safety and Security Department.

Resident life provides ample opportunities to live out these aspects of the mission. Learning to cooperate, negotiate, and facilitate in relationships are daily challenges. Rights of roommates are points worth discussing on a regular basis.

Relationships with roommates will continue to challenge all of us and mutual respect is key to our goal of creating "a positive living environment." As with all rights comes responsibility.

1. The right to read and study free from undue interference in your room.
2. The right to sleep without undo disturbance from noise, guests, roommates, etc.
3. The right to expect roommates will respect each other’s personal belongings.
4. The right to a clean environment in which to live.
5. The right to free access to one’s room and facilities without pressure from a roommate.
6. The right to personal privacy.
7. The right to host guests at an agreed upon time, and with the expectation that guests are to respect the rights of the host’s roommate(s) and other resident students.

8. The right to be free from fear or intimidation, physical and/or emotional harm.

9. The right to refuse requests without having to feel guilty or selfish.

10. The right to feel or express anger.

11. The right to expect reasonable cooperation in the use of the telephone, television, cooking facilities and a commitment to honor agreed upon payment procedures.

12. The right to expect that any and all disagreements will be discussed in an atmosphere of openness and mutual respect, and that it is acceptable when any roommate feels it necessary to involve a residence life staff member in such discussion.

POLICIES
It is the responsibility of each resident student to be aware of these residence life policies and adhere to them. Any violation of the policies can result in disciplinary action ranging from a verbal warning to removal from residence.

GENERAL CAMPUS SAFETY AND SECURITY
Be sure to lock your door at all times to protect yourself and your belongings. The College is not responsible for loss of any belongings from any of the residences. It is suggested that you carry an insurance policy to cover your personal belongings while living in the residence. Insurance can be available through homeowner’s insurance or any insurance company who provides insurance to college students. Report any thefts to the Campus Safety staff and residence life staff. While we strive to establish a positive community spirit, it is a fallacy to believe that thefts will not occur.

FIRE SAFETY
The College treats fire safety with DEADLY seriousness. As a result, VIOLATIONS FOR FIRE SAFETY POLICIES WILL RESULT IN STRICT SANCTIONS. Anyone found responsible for violating our fire safety policies could face up to removal from residence and face serious legal action by the law.

Each unit and/or bedroom is equipped with smoke detectors, carbon monoxide alarms and fire extinguishers. DO NOT TAMPER with them. Use them only for an actual fire. The fire extinguishers are located in the common area of each unit.

Report any fires, however small, immediately to the Office of Campus Safety & Security (845-398-4080).

Any cooking appliances found in the units will result in confiscation and serious disciplinary action.
Do not overload your electrical outlets. You may use a multi-outlet power strip. Retail surge protectors/power strips are designed for only light loads such as computers, printers, and low amperage equipment. They are not to be used for fans, heaters, coffeemakers, and equipment with similar loads. Use only surge protectors that have an internal circuit breaker. With these the breaker will trip to prevent fire, if over loaded or shorted. All units should be UL (Underwriters Laboratory) or Electrical Testing Laboratories approved. Cases of counterfeit labeling have been encountered, so to ensure your safety, purchase electrical cords and items from a reputable vendor rather than at discount stores. Use of extension cords is allowed only to extend the length of a cord and not to use three appliances in one outlet.

SMOKE DETECTORS
Smoke detectors are your most immediate and direct protection from fire because smoke occurs before a fire begins. They are located in each unit within the common area and bedrooms.

DO NOT DISCONNECT THESE SMOKE DETECTORS OR YOU WILL FACE SEVERE DISCIPLINARY ACTION!

SPRINKLERS
The sprinkler system was installed to meet fire safety codes and for your total protection. The sprinklers are not to be tampered with. In addition to being financially responsible for any damage as a result of tampering, you could face up to removal from residence.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS
Fire extinguishers are located in each unit within the common areas. In the event of a fire, pull the pin, aim extinguisher at the base of the fire, and pull the handle. The extinguisher is good for all types of fires (wood, grease, and electric). DO NOT tamper with your extinguishers unless there is an actual fire emergency.

FIRE LANE PARKING
A fire lane is posted in each of the two residence life complexes, AQUINAS VILLAGE and MCNELIS COMMONS. These lanes are installed to insure proper access for fire truck apparatus in case of any emergency. Do not park in these areas. Ticketing or towing by either our own Office of Campus Safety staff or the Orangetown police could be the result of parking in the fire lane zone.

FIREARMS, FIREWORKS AND EXPLOSIVES
Firearms and weapons of any kind are not permitted on campus. There possession is a violation of New York State law. Likewise, fireworks and explosives of any kind (this includes simple firecrackers, bottle rockets and M-80s) are not allowed on campus.

ALCOHOL CONSUMPTION/DRUGS
In accordance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, St. Thomas Aquinas College has adopted and implemented programs and policies designed to prevent the unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by College community members on College property or as part of any of its activities. Violations of alcohol and drug policies and laws will result in disciplinary action. Sanctions could include written warnings, fines, alcohol and/or drug assessments, disciplinary probation, suspension and dismissal.

Students are responsible for compliance with all laws regarding possession and distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol. The College does not condone any violations of the criminal law, including underage drinking.

The College will enforce the laws on alcohol and drugs in private residence rooms if, for example, attention is drawn to the room because of noise, excessive numbers of people, intoxication, any violation of the rights of others or because of previous history from other possible violations.

It is each student's responsibility to understand and abide by the laws as outlined in the College Substance Abuse Policy. The College Drug and Alcohol Policy is binding on all undergraduate and graduate students.

PERTAINING TO THE RESIDENCE UNITS

Handbook within our McNelis Commons and Aquinas Village residence life complexes. In enforcing federal, state, local laws and College policy.

Any structure, which has by its appearance, the function of serving alcohol is prohibited in residence rooms, adjoining corridors and other public areas of the McNelis Commons and Aquinas Village. Examples of such are structures with chairs, stools and empty alcohol containers. All alcohol advertisements are restricted from any common area of residence life.
First violation of this policy will result in a referral to a judicial meeting. Subsequent violations will result in sanctions up to and including expulsion or termination and referral for prosecution.

Any paraphernalia that promotes drug usage is prohibited at the College. If a student is found to be in possession of such, this will be considered a violation of College policy and will result in sanctions up to and including expulsion or termination and referral for prosecution.

INTOXICATION IN OUR COMMUNITY
Intoxication, whether by alcohol or illicit drugs and whether public or private, is a violation of the standards of the College and is subject to College discipline. Resident Assistants and Staff Professionals (under the supervision of the Associate Dean for Student Development) and Campus Safety Personnel (under the supervision of the Director of Campus Safety and Security) are responsible for monitoring intoxication occurring in the McNelis Commons and Aquinas Village residence complexes.

Incidents of intoxication occurring in the residence life area will be adjudicated at a judicial hearing. Violations outside of college's residence life area and/or repeated violations could result in sanctions up to and including expulsion or termination and referral for prosecution.

POSSSESSION AND TRANSPORT OF ALCOHOL ON CAMPUS
No person may possess or transport alcoholic beverages in any public area of the campus, i.e. parking lots and college residence life areas. Alcohol may not be provided to those who are underage. "Provide" means: sell, lend, give, exchange, barter or furnish in any way. Any violations of the policy could result in disciplinary sanctions up to and including expulsion or termination and referral for prosecution.

KEGS AND BEER BALLS
Kegs and beer balls are not allowed anywhere on College property, except in places that are duly licensed by the State of New York. Any student involved in a violation of this regulation will receive a mandatory fine of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250). In addition, any student involved in a violation of this regulation may be subject to sanctions, up to and including, expulsion or termination and referral for prosecution. All kegs and taps will be confiscated.

St. Thomas Aquinas College is committed to promoting the physical, intellectual, social, ethical and spiritual development of the College Community; and in continuing its efforts to meet those commitments, will provide ongoing health promotion, risk reduction, intervention and referral to treatment in connection with the unlawful possession, use and distribution of alcohol and other drugs, as cited in this policy.

PROHIBITED ITEMS FOR FIRE AND SAFETY REASONS:

ROOM AND COMMON AREA DECORATION
While students are permitted to decorate their rooms, obscene or inappropriate pictures, signs, articles, etc. may not be displayed in any room or window. Pictures, objects and decorations, etc. must conform to the ideals and values expressed in the college's mission statement and must be in good taste. In addition any decoration must be meet fire safety standards. The Associate Dean for Student Development and professional staff members are authorized to judge conformity, or the lack of it.

TELEVISION/STEREO/RADIO VOLUME
To help foster a climate of respect for the college community, all audio sounds must be contained within the student's room. Stereos, radios and televisions are not to be heard outside the student’s room. The noise level should not infringe on other person’s personal space.

UNAUTHORIZED POSSESSION, DUPLICATION OR LENDING OF KEYS OR ACCESS CARDS IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED.

WINDOWS AND SCREENS
Screens and the window panes may not be removed from the window frames. Removal of the screens could result in a fine and/or other sanction.

COURTESY/QUIET HOURS
Courtesy hours are in effect 24 hours a day. Quiet hours are in effect from 10 p.m. - 10 a.m. To help foster a climate of respect for the college community, all audio sounds must be contained within the student's room. Students bothered by excessive noise are asked to take initial responsibility for contacting the residents who are generating the noise. If the noise persists, then the RA on duty or CAMPUS SECURITY staff may be contacted. Failure to comply with courtesy/quiet hours could result in sanctions. NOTE: The Town of Orangetown has a noise ordinance in effect as of 10 p.m. every night of the week.
ROOM CHANGES
Room changes will not be honored during the first three weeks of the semester. Room changes are only permitted with the final approval from the Associate Dean for Student Development.

However, prior to that approval, an RA should be contacted and a meeting arranged among all of the students involved mediating the situation. After this process, the RA will contact the Residence Life Professional to intervene in the situation if there is no compromise between the students. The Residence Life Professional would make a recommendation to the Associate Dean for Student Development to make the final decision if these steps don’t result in a resolution.

GUEST POLICY
Evening Access to Campus
Under normal circumstances, beginning at 9:00 pm nightly, access to campus is monitored by Campus Safety Officers in booths at the entrance to the main campus and the McNelis Commons. Individuals who do not possess a St. Thomas Aquinas identification card will be required to produce identification upon request, and register as visitors.

Late Night Access to Campus
Under normal circumstances, beginning at 12:00 am nightly, access is restricted to those individuals who live on campus and to their registered guests. These guests will be issued a visitor’s pass (wristband) which must be clearly displayed.

Visitors to Residence Facilities
A "visitor" is defined as anyone (including other STAC students) who is not a resident of that unit. Resident students are responsible for the conduct of their visitors, both registered and unregistered. All Non-STAC visitors must be escorted by a resident student. Unregistered overnight guests will be asked to leave campus immediately. The College reserves the right to limit visitation for any person at any time and/or declare a nonmember of the College community "persona non grata" when his/her presence is considered detrimental to the welfare of the College community. An individual declared "persona non grata" is not permitted on college property.

Late Night Guests
The College believes that late night guests are an infringement upon the privacy and convenience of the person/s sharing the space. Late night guests should only occur on a limited and infrequent basis. The consent of all roommates sharing the space should be agreed upon before the late night guest is registered with the Office of Campus Safety. One (1) guest per resident student is permitted between 12:00 a.m. & 8:00 a.m. Late night guests must be issued an overnight guest pass by 12 a.m. for the night the individual is staying. No guest is permitted to stay more than two consecutive nights. No guest may stay overnight more than four times in each semester. Resident student hosts assume all responsibility for the conduct of their visitors while on campus. There are NO VISITORS permitted during the first week and the last two weeks of each semester.

Visitor(s) Behavior
Consideration, common sense and mutual respect for the rights of others needs to be exercised by all college resident students and any visitor/guest they may have, including those just visiting for brief period of time. It is not acceptable for any visitor (including other STAC students) to store books, clothing, sleeping bags or any other items in the residence life units. All visitors are bound by the College's policies. Those visitors/guests, whose behavior in the residence units infringes upon the rights and liberties of another student, will be dealt with in a serious manner. The College reserves the right to dismiss any visitor/guest who is unwilling or unable to meet the expected standards of behavior.

PERIODS OF RESIDENCE LIFE CALENDAR
1. Periods of "Regular Housing": The traditional Fall and Spring semester. The Aquinas Village and McNelis Commons residence life complexes are open and housing ALL resident students. ALL RESIDENT STUDENTS ARE REQUIRED TO SELECT A MEAL PLAN.

2. Periods of Alternative Housing: The periods of the calendar year which include special academic sessions (winter interim, pre-summer, summer, and post-summer sessions), Spring Break, Thanksgiving Break and periods between academic sessions when the College is open but classes are not in session. These periods provide special challenges, as a wide variety of students (those enrolled in a special class session, international students, student workers, student teachers, and student-athletes) traditionally request on-campus housing.

The following is the policy, which will address all possible requests received during these periods:

The College will offer alternative housing during these periods to any eligible student, defined as:

a. any student enrolled in a course (3 credit minimum)
b. any student-worker who has received permission from the Vice President of an area
c. any student-athlete with permission of the Athletic Director and referral to the VP and Dean for Student Development
d. any student with "international status" (as defined by the college)

Additionally, any student who meets any of the above criteria will be considered eligible for alternative housing only if he/she:
a. is currently a resident student at the time the alternative housing application is made

b. and he/she is a student "in good standing" (i.e. has not been held responsible for violating college policy which has resulted in the forfeiture of alternative housing privileges)

The application for alternative housing must be received by the Associate Dean for Student Development 30 days prior to the anticipated move-in date.

Alternative housing will be available only in units designated by the Office of Residence Life. The number of available beds is limited and the number of beds available will change from alternative session to session. The College cannot guarantee a bed to any student for any alternative session.

The per-diem rate for alternative housing is made available through the Office of Residence Life.

Supervision of alternative housing will be the responsibility of the Office of Residence Life. If any current resident student requests on-campus housing during an alternative session and none is available, the resident student should consider off-campus housing in the local area.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS
International students residing on-campus will be housed either in the McNelis Commons or Aquinas Village residence life complexes. International students will be permitted a short grace period of stay due to travel requirements.

During periods of "Alternative Housing", international Students will be housed in a residence life complex and supervised by the residence life staff. The per-diem rate for International Students, who choose to remain on-campus during periods of alternative housing, is available through the Office of Residence Life.

STUDENT-ATHLETE HOUSING
No housing preference is given to student athletes.

STUDENT VIOLATORS
Any student, who violates any College and/or Residence Life policy, as stated in the Residence Life section and Policies and Procedures section of the Student Handbook, will have a documented incident report and referral to the appropriate Code of Conduct process based on the alleged policy violation.

UNIT CLEANLINESS (OUTSIDE AND INSIDE)
As stated previously, the bathrooms and common areas are cleaned on a weekly basis by the cleaning staff. YOU and your suite mates are responsible for removing garbage as needed and maintaining the inside and outside of your unit in clean and healthy manner throughout the academic year. That means when the garbage bag(s) are full they must be removed by you. Garbage is NOT to be piled up. It is suggested that you organize an unit schedule for garbage removal and other household tasks with your suite mates. Dumpsters are located near each of the residence life buildings. Unclean and unhealthy unit\room conditions, common area space, and in front of the unit could result in monetary fines and/or additional sanctions.

DAMAGE TO YOUR APARTMENT AND BEDROOM

It is expected that you will take care of your furniture, walls, carpet, appliances, window screens, etc. in your residence unit. You are responsible for these items for the entire academic year. When you leave your residence life unit during any alternative period, it is expected that your residence will be in a well-maintained order.

Your room and the common area have been inspected prior to your arrival to determine their condition. On a monthly basis your unit will be inspected for damages and health/safety conditions, there is a special damage assessment record and billing that occurs after each of these inspections. You will be held financially responsible for any damages, which occur throughout each semester. Because you are regarded as a responsible adult, any deliberate acts of vandalism within your residence could result in disciplinary action.

Shared responsibility not only applies to household tasks but is also applicable to damages. If damage occurs in a common area of the residence it is the responsibility of all residents to discuss the situation and determine who should accept responsibility for the damage. If this communication does not occur, the bill for the damage will be distributed among all residents. Ultimate responsibility for bedroom damage must be borne by the individuals who reside in the bedroom.

Posters and other wall hangings should be hung with thumbtacks. TAPE, NAILS, GLUE OR ANY OTHER FORMS OF ADHESIVE ARE NOT PERMITTED.

You are also responsible for damages, which occur to your front doorway area (screens, windows, door jams, etc.). Should another individual render damage to your front doorway, report this information immediately or you will be held responsible.

REPAIRS

Report all repair requests (light bulbs, leaky faucets, etc.) to the On-Duty RA who will process the requests. DO NOT HANDLE REPAIRS YOURSELF. The facilities personnel are the only staff authorized to do repairs. All requests must first be reported to the Office of Residence Life except for emergencies.

KEYS AND ACCESS CONTROL

Keys to your room and closet are issued at check in. Report any lost key(s) immediately to the Office of Residence Life and/or Campus Safety. There is a $50 fee for each lost key or access card (SPARTAN ID CARD). There is a possible $500 fee to change all locks within the unit if necessary. Do not lend your key(s) to anyone. You are fully responsible for the use of your assigned keys or access card (SPARTAN ID Card). Violation of this policy is a serious safety and security issue and will be dealt with accordingly.

LOCKED OUT OF YOUR ROOM/RESIDENCE

Please notify either Campus Safety and Security (845-398-4080) to assist you in gaining access to your unit. Resident students who have been locked out more than two times in an academic year will be charged a $10 fine for each recurring time. Please remember to take your keys and/or access card (SPARTAN ID Card) with you!

When a Code of Conduct violation is charged, due process is observed as follows:

A student accused of violating the Code of Conduct shall be notified in writing of the specific charge(s) against him or her and shall have the opportunity, within a reasonable amount of time, for a hearing to discuss the charge(s). STUDENT JUDICIAL RECORDS

Policy Statement
The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) is a federal law that provides regulations regarding the access, review, amendment, and disclosure of student educational records. Student judicial records are included in the definition of educational records. The requirements of this law with respect to student judicial records are covered in the information, which follows.

Access
Any student has the right to inspect his or her own judicial file. The information contained therein will be made available to the student upon written request forwarded to the Vice President & Dean for Student Development.

No one outside the College shall have access to the student's records nor will the College disclose any information from these records without the written consent of the student, except under those circumstances that are permitted by FERPA. Students are advised that potential graduate schools or employers may request information on disciplinary status. Under the FERPA regulations, the College may disclose a student's records to school officials of another institution in which a student seeks to enroll. However, judicial materials will not be sent to any employer unless the student specifically authorized the College to do so in writing.

Within the College community, only those members individually or collectively acting in the student's educational interest are allowed access to student records.

It shall be the responsibility of the Vice President & Dean for Student Development in response to any authorized inquiry to inspect the records of any student, and to provide an explanation in writing, if necessary, as to the nature and severity of any violation in which the student in question has been sanctioned.

Maintenance of Records
When a student is found responsible for violating the College's Code of Conduct a disciplinary file for the student is created. This file contains all information pertinent to any and all proceedings in which the student has been involved. Each subsequent time a student is found responsible for violating regulation; his or her record is used in determining a sanction. The records of any student contained in the judicial file shall be maintained by the Office for Student Development until the student's graduation from the College, at which time it will be destroyed. An exception will be made to this policy, however, in those instances where the judicial proceedings resulted in a student's suspension or expulsion (dismissal) from the College. In such a case, a notification will appear on the student's record, and the documents containing the relevant sanction will be maintained to substantiate this notation.
Good Standing
Only matriculated students pursuing degree programs who are not under academic or disciplinary probation will be eligible for office in a student organization. This includes appointed as well as elected offices.

Off-Campus Conduct Policy
Whether on or off campus, students are expected to adhere to the code of conduct established by St. Thomas Aquinas College. This applies to students in St. Thomas Aquinas College off-campus housing as well as students dwelling in non-College sponsored off-campus housing. The College reserves the right to investigate and subsequently apply College discipline in certain off-campus situations, which impact the College community.

Possession and Surrender of ID Cards
Every registered student at St. Thomas Aquinas College is required to carry the College Identification Card at all times while on campus and to surrender it upon the request of clearly identified College personnel (this includes campus safety officers) in the performance of their duties.

Identification cards are available in the Office for Student Development. In the event the ID card is lost or the student withdraws from the College, he/she must report the loss, theft, or withdrawal immediately to the ID Office (Romano Student Alumni Center, Office for Student Development).

Appeal Process

A. Appeal to the Vice President and Dean for Student Development

1. A student receiving a sanction by the decision of the Adjudication Officer (A.O.) in a case of violating the student code of conduct may appeal the decision to the Vice President and Dean for Student Development.

2. Upon official notification of a decision by the A.O., the student shall have (5) business days to submit an appeal in writing to the Vice President and Dean for Student Development.

3. Appeals must be based on one or more of the following grounds:
   a. New evidence is available which was not reasonably available at or before the time of the student's last presentation to the A.O.
   b. A procedural error occurred which can be shown to have had a detrimental effect on the decision of the A.O.
   c. It is the opinion of the student that the decision of the A.O. imposes inappropriate sanction(s) having no reasonable relationship to the offense(s) committed.

4. A meeting will be scheduled between the appellant and Vice President and Dean for Student Development.
5. The Vice President and Dean for Student Development of the College, having met with the appealing student shall notify the student of his/her decision within ten (10) business days of their meeting.

6. The Vice President and Dean for Student Development of the College shall notify the A.O. regarding the filing and outcome of the appeal.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is a commitment to honesty, trust, fairness, respect and responsibility in an academic community. An academic community of integrity advances the quest for truth and knowledge by requiring intellectual and personal honesty in learning, teaching, research and service. Honesty begins with oneself and extends to others. Such a community also fosters a climate of mutual trust, encourages the free exchange of ideas, and enables all to reach their highest potential.

An academic community of integrity establishes clear standards, practices and procedures and expects fairness in the interactions of students, faculty and administrators. We recognize the participatory nature of the learning process and we honor and respect a wide range of opinions and ideas. We all must show respect for the work of others by acknowledging their intellectual debts through proper identification of sources. An academic community of integrity upholds personal accountability and shared responsibility.

Academic integrity is essential to St. Thomas Aquinas College’s mission to educate in an atmosphere of mutual understanding, concern, cooperation and respect. All members of the College community are expected to possess and embrace academic integrity. Academic dishonesty is any behavior which violates these principles.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

St. Thomas Aquinas College strictly prohibits academic dishonesty. Any violation of academic integrity policies which constitutes academic dishonesty will be subject to harsh penalties, ranging up to and including dismissal from the College. Set forth below are a series of examples of academic dishonesty and the process utilized by the College in addressing cases of academic dishonesty, including the process to be followed by faculty members in filing an academic dishonesty allegation, and the process followed by students who might seek to challenge a determination by the College that he/she engaged in academic dishonesty.

I. EXAMPLES OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

The following behaviors are examples of academic dishonesty.

Cheating
- Giving unauthorized help on a test or other academic exercise.
- Accepting unauthorized help on a test or other academic exercise.
- Attempting to obtain unauthorized help from another student on a test or other academic exercise.
- Copying from another student's work.
- Allowing another student to copy from your work.
- Using unauthorized materials during a test or other academic exercise, such as a textbook,
- Fraudulently obtaining copies of tests, such as from offices, waste receptacles, or students who have previously taken the test.
- Giving test questions or test answers to other students who have not yet taken that test.
- Obtaining test questions or test answers from other students who have already taken that test.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is representing someone else's work or ideas as one's own, and occurs when appropriate credit is not given to the original source. Note that plagiarism can be intentional as well as unintentional behavior, and information sources refer to both print and electronic media.

Furthermore, Section 213-b of the New York State Education Law prohibits the sale of term papers, essays, and research reports to students enrolled in a college.

Examples of plagiarism including the following.

- Failing to indicate direct quotations.
- Failing to indicate the source of direct quotations.
- Failing to indicate the source of paraphrased material.
- Copying another's data files or computer programs and presenting them as one's own.
- Submitting work which was written or prepared in whole or in part by another person.
- Purchasing or attempting to purchase work written or prepared by another.
- Borrowing or attempting to borrow work written or prepared by another and presenting it as one's own.

Deception

- Allowing another person to take a test in one's place.
- Falsifying data for labs, experiments, and research projects.
- Listing reference sources which have not been used.
- Inventing reference sources.
- Unauthorized multiple submissions of papers and other academic exercises (e.g., submitting the same paper in two different classes without the permission of all instructors involved).
- Lying to an instructor or other College official (e.g., intentionally misrepresenting the reason why one has missed an examination).
- Aiding another student in academic misconduct.

II. PROCESS FOR HANDLING CASES OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

A. The individual faculty member has authority and jurisdiction within the faculty member's class.
1. When confronted by an instance of academic dishonesty, the faculty member may fail the student on the concerned question, testing instrument, or for the course as a whole, as seems appropriate to the offense in the judgement of the faculty member. Other academic penalties may be imposed, such as repeating a test instrument, as the faculty member sees fit. Prior to imposing any penalty, the Provost and faculty member should consult with the division chair and the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs to determine whether a previous case of academic dishonesty is relevant to the situation under consideration.

2. When an instance of academic dishonesty results in a penalty by the faculty member, the faculty member must inform the Division Chair and the Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs (VPAA) in writing of the student's name, the date, a brief description of the offense (e.g., cheating on mid-term exam), and the penalty imposed. The faculty member shall provide a copy to the concerned student. Confidential records of such events will be maintained by the Chair and the Provost & VPAA.

B. If a second offense of academic dishonesty by the same student is encountered, the faculty member shall refer the case in writing, with copy to the concerned student, through the Division Chair and Provost & VPAA to the Academic Standards Committee of the Faculty (ASC), which will determine whether suspension or dismissal or other penalty is appropriate. Pending the resolution of the matter, should it be necessary to report a grade, the faculty member shall record "NGR" - "No Grade Reported" - for the student on the relevant instrument or in the relevant course; no final grade in the concerned course will be reported for the student until the ASC's or the President's decision has been rendered. The faculty member will be consulted regarding the appropriated grade to be granted.

C. If anyone encounters any case of academic dishonesty which is egregious, the procedure described in paragraph B, immediately above, may be directly implemented.

D. Students who have been found guilty of academic dishonesty are not eligible to be inducted into honor societies.

III. APPEALS FROM DETERMINATIONS OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY
A. Appeal to the Division and to the Academic Standards Committee.
   If the student wishes to appeal a determination of academic dishonesty by a faculty member, appeal may be made, in writing, first to the chair of the division sponsoring the course and, second, to the ASC.

B. Appeal to the President
   A student receiving a penalty by the decision of the ASC in a case of academic dishonesty may appeal the decision to the President of the College.

1. Upon official notification of a decision by the ASC, the student shall have (5) class days to submit an appeal in writing to the President.

2. Appeals must be based on one or more of the following grounds.

   a. New evidence is available which was not reasonably available at or before the time of the student's last presentation to the ASC.

b. A procedural error occurred which can be shown to have had a detrimental effect on the decision of the ASC.

c. The decision of the ASC is clearly in error when viewed in light of the information presented to the ASC or the decision imposes inappropriate sanction(s) having no reasonable relationship to the offense(s) committed.

3. The President of the College, having met with the appealing student, the Provost & VPAA, and the Vice President and Dean for Student Development, shall notify the student of the President's decision within five (5) class days, unless special circumstances make that impracticable.

4. The President of the College shall notify the Provost & VPAA of appeals which originate through the President's office.

DISRUPTIVE STUDENT BEHAVIOR

In Academic Classrooms or Faculty Offices St. Thomas Aquinas College expects that each student will behave lawfully, maturely, and responsibly and that his/her behavior will not be detrimental to the orderly conduct of the College's function as an educational institution.

Students are prohibited from engaging in disruptive behavior in classes and faculty offices. Disruptive behavior includes verbal and/or physical conduct which tends to interrupt to the extent of stopping or preventing the normal continuance of a class or of a meeting in a faculty member's office.

In the event that a student engages in disruptive behavior in a class or a faculty member's office, the College may require the student to leave the site of the incident, impose conditions upon the student's resumption of ordinary relations with the faculty member of class, and/or take such other appropriate action as may be warranted in the discretion of the College.

Other College procedures and directives may apply to related topics, such as disruptive behavior outside of classrooms and faculty offices and disciplinary action that may result from occurrences of disruptive behavior.

1. First occurrence of disruptive behavior by a student

a. The faculty member should direct that the student leave the classroom or office immediately and that the student should arrange an appointment with the Division Chair and keep that appointment before returning to the faculty member's class or office.

   1). If the student complies in leaving the classroom or office, the Division Chair should specify in writing the conditions under which the student may resume normal relations with the class or faculty member.

   2). If the student does not comply with the directive to leave the classroom or office, the faculty member immediately should contact the Office of Campus Safety and ask that members of the Campus Safety staff escort the student from the classroom or office or, if necessary, cause the student to be removed there from.

b. The faculty member should inform in writing the Division Chair, the Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the Vice President and Dean for Student Development of the event and briefly describe what happened.

2. Second or Subsequent Occurrences of Disruptive Behavior by a Student

a. If the faculty member judges that a direct request to the disruptive student to leave the classroom or office would be futile or inappropriate under the circumstances, or if such a direct request is not respected, the faculty member should immediately contact the Office of Campus Safety and ask that a member of the Campus Safety staff escort the student from the classroom or office or, if necessary, cause the student to be removed there from.

b. The faculty member should inform in writing the Division Chair, The Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the Vice President and Dean for Student Development of the event and briefly describe what happened.

3. Instances Where the Assistance of Members of the Campus Safety Staff is required to remove a Student

a. In any instance of disruptive behavior resulting in a required departure or removal from a classroom or faculty office through the assistance of members of the Campus Safety staff, the concerned student shall meet with the Vice President and Dean for Student Development prior to the student's next attendance of the concerned class or meeting with the concerned faculty member.

b. This meeting shall afford the student an opportunity to present the student's explanation of the events leading to the required departure or removal and shall provide the Vice President and Dean for Student Development an opportunity to gather more information regarding the incident.

c. The condition under which the student may resume normal relations with the concerned class or faculty member will be determined by the Vice President and Dean for Student Development and the Provost & Vice President for Academic Affairs in consultation.
SUBSTANCE ABUSE POLICY

In accordance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989, St. Thomas Aquinas College has adopted and implemented programs and policies designed to prevent the unlawful possession, use or distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol by College community members on College Property or as part of any of its activities.

St. Thomas Aquinas College maintains a firm commitment to provide a safe and healthy environment for its students. In keeping with this commitment, the College has joined a network of other institutions throughout the country, the Network of Drug Free Colleges and Universities which have agreed to maintain a drug-free campus. In addition to adhering to the standard established by that group, the College’s substance abuse policy complies with the regulations set forth in the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989.

Violations in alcohol and drug policies and laws will result in disciplinary action. Sanctions could include written warnings, fines, alcohol and/or drug assessments, disciplinary probation, loss of housing, loss of extracurricular privileges, suspension, and dismissal. Student organizations also may be sanctioned for violations of these policies and laws.

Students and employees are responsible for compliance with all laws regarding possession and distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol. The College does not condone any violations of the criminal law, including underage drinking.

Enforcement of the College Substance Abuse Policy will occur in residence life units and rooms when, for example, attention is drawn to the room because of noise, excessive numbers of people, intoxication or any violations of the rights of others. All residence life units will be “visited” daily by Resident Assistants and/or Campus Safety officers.

It is each student’s and employee’s responsibility to understand and abide by the laws as outlined in the College Substance Abuse Policy. The College Drug and Alcohol Policy is binding on all undergraduate and graduate students and College employees.

Alcoholic Beverages Policy
Federal law requires that in order for an institution of higher education to receive federal funds, it must adopt and implement a program to prevent the possession, use, or distribution of illegal or illicit drugs and alcohol by students and employees. In keeping with the foregoing, all students are required to strictly adhere to the standards of conduct outlined below.

a) Alcoholic Beverages:

In keeping with the laws of New York, college policy regarding alcoholic beverages is as follows:
1) It is illegal for any person under 21 years of age to possess alcoholic beverages or to attempt to purchase or to consume or transport any alcoholic beverage.

2) It is illegal for any person to sell or give alcoholic beverages of any kind to a minor.

3) It is illegal for any person to misrepresent his or her own age or the age of any other person to obtain alcoholic beverages.

For students and their guests of legal age, alcoholic beverages are confined to resident rooms with doors closed, or to a location designated and approved by the Office for Student Development. All individual students or guests in any student room must be of legal age (21 years or older) when alcohol is present.

Alcohol is prohibited in all public areas, including, without limitation, porches, lounges, stairs, lobbies, classrooms, hallways, and offices. In those situations in which exceptions are made, the college reserves the right to require additional procedures to ensure safety and responsible consumption.

Alcoholic beverages are not allowed in the Student Activities programs on campus unless during an event where all in attendance are of age and the sponsoring group has received the explicit written permission of the Vice President and Dean for Student Development.

b) Alcohol Containers and Quantities:

This section regulates the amount of alcohol a student who is 21 or older may possess in our residence halls or while on college property. The essential elements of that policy are as follows:

1) No kegs or beer balls, or the number of cases and/or bottles or cans of alcohol that equal the volume of these containers, are permitted in the residence halls or on college property.

2) No alcoholic punch/mix/concoction is permitted in the residence halls or on college property.

3) No student may possess more than one total unit in any combination of the following list of alcohol unit amounts:

- One gallon of wine.
- One liter of hard liquor or natural or distilled spirits used or intended for consumption.
- One case of beer or malt products (24 12-ounce bottles or cans).
- One case of wine coolers or similar alcoholic products (24 12-ounce bottles or cans).
Bulk amounts and common sources of alcohol are strictly prohibited for individual and campus organizations unless provided by a third-party vendor and approved by and registered with the Office for Student Development. Examples of bulk amounts and common sources of alcohol are kegs and beer balls or jug wines. Alcohol used in violation of college policy will be confiscated.

Empty alcohol containers and paraphernalia—including wine bottles, beer cans/bottles, liquor bottles of any size, shot glasses, beer bongs and funnels—are prohibited on college property, including those for decorative purposes.

STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

1. The illegal use, sale, possession, manufacture, or purchase of illegal drugs or alcohol is strictly prohibited.

2. There shall be no alcohol beverages served or consumed at any on-campus College events or functions except under the specific exceptions listed below:

   A. Alcoholic Beverages are prohibited on college properties and at all college functions with the following exceptions:

      1. Specifically stated Administrative/Staff functions: Faculty/Staff Dinner Dance and the Faculty/Staff Holiday Party.

      2. Other college functions as approved by the President.

3. DRUNKENNESS AND INTOXICATION

   Intoxication, whether of alcohol or illicit drugs and whether public or private, is a violation of the standards of the College and is subject to College discipline.

4. POSSESSION AND TRANSPORT OF ALCOHOL ON CAMPUS; PROVISION TO MINORS

   No person may possess or transport alcoholic beverages in any public area of the campus, i.e. parking lots, college housing, or common areas. Alcohol may not be provided to those who are underage.

5. KEGS AND BEER BALLS

   Kegs and Beer Balls containing alcoholic beverages are not allowed anywhere on College property. Any student involved in a violation of this regulation will receive a mandatory fine and additional sanctions. All kegs and beer balls will be confiscated.

WELLNESS

St. Thomas Aquinas College is committed to promoting the physical, intellectual, social, ethical and spiritual development of the college community. In continuing its efforts to meet these commitments, the College will provide on-going health promotion, risk reduction, intervention and referral to treatment in connection with the unlawful possession, use and distribution of alcohol and other drugs, as cited in this policy.
1. HEALTH RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH ABUSE OF ILLICIT DRUGS AND ALCOHOL

For information about the health risks associated with the use of alcohol and drugs, please stop by the Office of Student Life, the College Health office, or the Office of Counseling & Psychological Services for detailed printed information.

2. COUNSELING & PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

Abuse of drugs and alcohol may lead to marked impairment in social, familial, and vocational functioning, as well as causing significant health problems.

Students at St. Thomas Aquinas College who are concerned with these issues are urged to contact a counselor at Counseling & Psychological Services (Romano Student Alumni Center). Confidential individual, group, and family counseling is available at the Center. Treatment for alcohol and/or substance abuse problems often involves referral to services in the community that specialize in Substance Abuse treatment.

Individuals who are trying to maintain sobriety may be referred to appropriate support groups, as are individuals who are suffering because a friend or family member is abusing drugs or alcohol.

COLLEGE DISCIPLINARY SANCTIONS

A student or employee who violated the College’s Substance Abuse Policy will be subject to disciplinary sanctions up to and including expulsion or termination and referral for criminal prosecution by law enforcement authorities.

The President and the Vice President & Dean for Student Development may impose disciplinary sanctions such as:

- written warnings
- monetary fines and/or restitution
- work assignment/community service
- referral for assessment and/or counseling
- probation (sports/student activity participation)
- suspension from campus housing
- expulsion from campus housing
- suspension from the college
- expulsion from the college
- suspension from employment.
APPEAL

Each student has the right to appeal any sanction incurred as a consequence of a Substance Abuse Policy violation.

BIENNIAL REVIEW OF POLICY

The College will review its Substance Abuse Policy every two years in order to: (1) determine its effectiveness and implement changes to the Policy if necessary; and (2) to ensure that the disciplinary sanctions described therein are consistently enforced.

LEGAL SANCTIONS

Both Federal and State law make it a criminal offense to manufacture, distribute, dispense or possess with intent to manufacture, distribute, dispense or simply possess a controlled substance. See Title 21 U.S. Code 801, et. Seq. And New York State Public Health Law, 3306. Controlled substances are defined by the schedules contained in 812 of the Title 21 of the U.S. Code and New York State Public Health Law, 3306.

The New York State Penal Law makes it a criminal offense to possess, possess with intent to sell, or actually sell various drugs. The drugs to which this law applies include marijuana and those listed in the schedules contained in the New York State Public Health Law 3306.

The possible sanctions for the violations of Federal and State law depend upon the particular offense violated. The various offenses are premised on aggravating factors which include the type and quantity of drugs involved. Depending upon the particular aggravating circumstances involved, violations of said law may include sanctions ranging from community service to a monetary fine and/or a term of imprisonment.

It is a violation of New York State Penal Law 240.40 for a person to appear in public under the influence of narcotics or a drug other than alcohol to the degree that he may endanger himself or other persons or property, or annoy persons in his vicinity. It is also a violation of New York State Penal Law 260.20 (d) (4) for a person to give or sell an alcoholic beverage to a person less than twenty-one years old.

Any person who operates a motor vehicle intoxicated or while his ability to operate such vehicle is impaired by the consumption of alcohol or by drugs in violation of Vehicle and Traffic Law 1192 is subject to suspension or revocation of driving privileges in the state as well as a fine and a possible term of imprisonment.

For detailed information on Federal and State Trafficking Penalties, or for further details concerning federal, state and local legal sanctions, please visit the Office of the Vice President and Dean for Student Development.

LOCAL LAW

Open Container: It is a violation of the Town of Orangetown, Local Law No. 2 to possess, carry or transport any alcoholic beverage in an open bottle or open container, in or upon any public sidewalk, street, highway, parking lot or public park or on any grounds owned or under the control of a public school district within the Town of Orangetown. The possible penalties include a fine and imprisonment.
GENDER-BASED AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Members of the College community, guests and visitors have the right to be free from all forms of gender and sex-based discrimination, examples of which can include acts of sexual violence, sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others.

This policy is intended to cover incidents of gender based and sexual misconduct (GBSM) which are defined by the College as non-consensual contact, non-consensual sexual intercourse, or sexual exploitation. Sexual Harassment, which we broadly define as any type of sexually-oriented conduct, whether intentional or not, that is unwelcome and has the purpose or effect of creating an employment or academic environment that is hostile, offensive or coercive to a reasonable woman or man, as the case may be, is further defined in the College’s Anti-Harassment Policies as published in the Student Handbook and in the Employee Manuals, both available for viewing on the College’s website.

The College strongly opposes all forms of gender-based misconduct. When an allegation of misconduct is brought to an appropriate administrator’s attention, and a respondent is found to have violated this policy, sanctions and/or other appropriate action will be employed to reasonably ensure that such actions are not repeated. This policy has been developed to prevent sexual violence, end such conduct when it occurs, prevent its recurrence and address its effects, reaffirm these principles and provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. This policy is intended to define community expectations and to establish a mechanism for determining when those expectations have been violated.

All allegations of GBSM and/or retaliation as defined in this policy may be reported to the Title IX Officer or designated Deputy Coordinator, to a member of the Office of Campus Safety and Security, or to any employee to whom the complainant feels comfortable making a report. Please refer to Section III of this policy for specifics. All reports of potential incidents of GBSM and/or retaliation shall be forwarded promptly to the Title IX Officer (or designated Deputy Coordinator) as stated in Section III below.
SCOPE OF THE POLICY

This policy applies to allegations of GBSM by students and employees of St. Thomas Aquinas College in situations in which the College has control over the context of the incident, control over the respondent, and the behavior is so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it can be said to deprive the complainant of access to the educational opportunities or benefits provided by the institution. See also Section II, below.

The administration, faculty and staff of St. Thomas Aquinas College firmly believe and act upon the principles of prevention education. Education begins in orientation and continues throughout the year.

I. Prohibited Conduct

A. Discrimination

St. Thomas Aquinas College adheres to all federal and state civil rights laws banning discrimination in private institutions of higher education. The College does not discriminate against students, faculty, staff, and other beneficiaries on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, age, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, genetic predisposition, carrier status, veteran status, or religious affiliation in admission to, or in the provision of its programs and services. The Section 504 Coordinator, the Title IX Coordinator, and the Age Act Coordinator is Ms. Patricia Pacchiana, the Senior Executive Director of Human Resources, Borelli Hall 206E, ext. 4044/4038.

B. Sexual Misconduct

This policy prohibits any and all forms of sexual misconduct. Acts of sexual misconduct may be committed by any person upon any other person, regardless of the sex, gender, sexual orientation, and/or gender identity of those involved. The definition of consent below will be used in the interpretation and application of this policy:

Affirmative Consent is a clear, unambiguous, knowing, informed, and voluntary agreement between all participants to engage in sexual activity. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create clear permission regarding willingness to engage in the sexual activity. Silence or lack of resistance, in and of itself, does not demonstrate consent. Consent is active, not passive. Seeking and having consent accepted is the responsibility of the person(s) initiating each specific sexual act regardless of whether the person initiating the act is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol. Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not constitute consent to any other sexual act. The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant’s sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. Consent may be initially given but withdrawn at any time. When consent is withdrawn or cannot be given, sexual activity must stop. Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated. Incapacitation occurs when an individual lacks the ability to fully, knowingly choose to participate in sexual activity. Incapacitation includes impairment due to drugs or alcohol (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary), the lack of consciousness or being asleep, being involuntarily restrained, if any of the parties are under the age of 17, or if an individual otherwise cannot consent. Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force, or threat of harm.

More specifically, under this policy, a person is incapacitated if he or she is disabled or deprived of ability to act or reason for one's self, is unable to understand what is happening, or is disoriented, helpless, asleep, or unconscious for any reason, including due to alcohol or other drugs. Incapacitation is defined as a state in which a person cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because he/she lacks the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g., to understand the "who, what, when, where, why, or how" of a sexual interaction). This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, involuntary physical restraint, and/or from taking of an incapacitating substance. Under New York State law, a person is incapacitated if the person is temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling the person’s own conduct due to the influence of a narcotic, anesthetic, or intoxicating substance; if a person is unable to communicate an unwillingness to act because the person is unconscious, asleep, or is otherwise physically limited; or if the person has a bodily impairment or handicap that substantially limits the person’s ability to resist or flee. In addition, according to NYS law, a person cannot give consent if he/she is under 17 years of age.

An individual who engages in sexual activity when the individual knows, or should know, that the other person is physically or mentally incapacitated has violated this policy. It is not an excuse that the respondent to a claim of sexual misconduct was intoxicated and, therefore, did not realize the other person’s incapacity.

The sexual orientation and/or gender identity of individuals engaging in sexual activity is not relevant to allegations under this policy in the sense that sexual activity without consent violates this policy regardless of the sexual orientation or gender identity of the individuals involved.

The following definition of force is provided to clarify when consent is not given:
Force. Force is the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats) and coercion that overcome resistance or produce acquiescence ("Have sex with me or I’ll hit you. Okay, don’t hit me, I’ll do what you want.").

- Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to obtain consent from another. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

- NOTE: There is no requirement that a party resist the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent. The fact that one party did not engage in resistance does not establish the absence of force by another party. Sexual activity facilitated by a use of force is by definition non-consensual. However, the use of force is not the only factor that may render sexual activity non-consensual. For example, in order to give effective consent, one must be of legal age.

- Sexual activity with someone who one knew to be -- or based on the circumstances should reasonably have known to be -- mentally or physically incapacitated (by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout), constitutes a violation of this policy.

  - Incapacitation is a state in which someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because he/she lacks the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of their sexual interaction).

This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, sleep, involuntary physical restraint, or from the taking of “club” drugs. Possession, use and/or distribution of any of these substances, including Rohypnol, Ketamine, GHB (Gamma Hydroxybutyrate), Burundanga, etc., is prohibited, and administering one of these drugs to another student is a violation of this policy. More information on these drugs can be found at http://www.drugabuse.gov/drugs-abuse/club-drugs

- NOTE: Use of or impairment by alcohol or other drugs will never function as a defense for any behavior that violates this policy.
For reference to the pertinent state statutes on sex offenses, please see: Addendum A, below, New York State Penal Code 130.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT OFFENSES INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO:
➢ Non-Consensual Sexual Contact (or attempts to commit same)

3. Sexual Exploitation

Defined as:

- taking non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another; and
- the conduct does not fall within the definitions of non-consensual sexual intercourse, or non-consensual sexual contact. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

  - sexual voyeurism (such as watching a person undressing, using the bathroom, or engaging in sexual acts without the consent of the person observed)

  - taking photographs, video recording, or audio recording of another in a sexual act or in any other private activity without the consent of all persons involved in the activity

See Addendum A below for the definition of Domestic Violence and Dating Violence under New York State law.

5. Stalking

Defined as:
A course of conduct directed at a specific person that is unwelcome and would cause a reasonable person to feel fear or suffer substantial emotional distress. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- sending multiple unwanted text messages, phone calls, or electronic communications

- following, watching, photographing, or otherwise tracking an individual without his or her permission

- sending unwelcome gifts, notes, or other items to another person

See Addendum A below for a definition of Stalking under New York State law.

C. Retaliation

The College seeks to create an environment in which its students and employees are free, without fear of reprisal, to use its procedures to determine if there has been a violation of their rights. Any act of retaliation will result in appropriate disciplinary action.

Retaliation is defined as any adverse action taken against a person participating in a protected activity because of his/her participation in that protected activity. Retaliation against an individual for alleging a violation of their civil rights, supporting a complainant, or for assisting in providing information relevant to a claim, is a serious violation of the this policy. Acts of alleged retaliation should be reported immediately to the Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinators.
D. Other Offenses

This policy prohibits other offenses of sexual misconduct and/or of a retaliatory nature not included in the previous sections, as follows:

- Intimidation, defined as implied threats or acts that cause a reasonable fear of harm in another on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class

- Hazing, defined under this policy as acts likely to cause physical or psychological harm or social ostracism to any person within the College community when related to the admission, initiation, pledging, joining, or any other group-affiliation activity on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class

- Bullying, defined under this policy as repeated and/or severe aggressive behavior likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control or diminish another person, physically or mentally on the basis of actual or perceived membership in a protected class

- Threatening or causing physical harm, extreme verbal abuse, or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person

- Violation of any other College rule, when it is motivated by sex or gender or the actual or perceived membership of the complainant in a protected class, may be pursued using this policy and process

E. Confidentiality

Confidentiality with respect to a person accused of having violated the sexual misconduct policy is governed by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), also known as the Buckley Amendment. FERPA provides that personally identifiable information maintained in the educational records of an institution shall not be disclosed, except as otherwise specified by law.

II. Jurisdiction

This policy applies to allegations of sexual misconduct and retaliation that take place on STAC property or at College-sponsored events, regardless of their location. This policy may also apply to allegations of sexual misconduct and retaliation that occur off-campus or to actions online when the Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinator determines that the off-campus or online conduct could have an on-campus impact or impact on the educational mission of the College. Such impact includes:

- Any action that constitutes a criminal offense as defined by federal, state, or local law;
• Any situation where it appears that the respondent may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of self or others;

• Any situation that significantly impinges upon the rights, property, or achievements of others or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder; and/or

• Any situation that is detrimental to the educational interests of the College.

The College’s power to impose sanctions against a respondent may be limited if the respondent was a guest, visitor or trespasser who is not subject to the College’s jurisdiction.

III. Complaint Resolution Process

The College will respond to any alleged violation of this policy received by the Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinators, from the claimant or any responsible reporter. This section outlines ways in which offenses may be reported by individuals choosing to pursue complaint options.

A student or employee may file a complaint against a student or employee for allegedly violating the sexual misconduct policy. The term “student” includes all persons who have gained academic admission to the College, as well as persons who presently are taking or auditing courses at the College. For purposes of this policy, the College in its discretion also may treat as students individuals who presently are not enrolled at the College, but who have a continuing relationship with the College closely akin to that of a student. The term “employee” includes any person who is a faculty member, administrator/professional or support staff member or any other person employed by the College.

A. Confidentiality and Reporting of Offenses

St. Thomas Aquinas College endeavors to address reports of sexual misconduct and retaliation in as private and confidential a manner as possible and, particularly when confidentiality is requested, will make every effort to safeguard the identities of individuals who seek help and/or report sexual misconduct and/or retaliation. While requests for confidentiality can be respected in most cases, the College cannot honor a request for confidentiality that is made to a responsible reporter in circumstances in which doing so would prevent the College from taking steps necessary to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for all students, including the student who reported the sexual violence. See Section III.A.4, below. In such circumstances, the College may need to investigate an incident and take action once an allegation is known, whether or not the reporting individual chooses to pursue a complaint. The College’s Title IX officer, or in the absence of the Title IX officer a Deputy Title IX Coordinator, shall evaluate and make determinations concerning such confidentiality requests. Provision also is made in this policy for reporting to certain confidential sources. See Section III.A.3, below.

When a report is made, personally identifiable information (name of complainant, name of respondent, etc.) may be initially withheld in cases where the complainant is hesitant to come forward. Subsequently, campus officials may need additional information. The College’s Office of Campus Safety and Security in conjunction with the Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinator will conduct an initial inquiry, looking for any sign of pattern, predation, violence, or threat. When such exists, institutional action may be required in an effort to ensure campus safety. No employee should ever promise absolute confidentiality, except as described below in Section III.A.2. Reports may be private, but not confidential, as described below in Section III.A.3. Reports to Campus Safety and Security and/or Title IX officials do not obligate the complainant to file any criminal or college conduct charges.

The College will not pursue disciplinary action against the alleged complainant of sexual misconduct, or against another student who shares information as either a witness to or as a reporter of sexual misconduct, for his or her improper use of alcohol or other drugs as long as the report is made in good faith. This safe harbor applies only to incidents of alcohol and/or drug use directly related to the circumstances surrounding the alleged sexual misconduct under GSBM investigation.

Complaints and reports should be made as soon as possible after an incident. Options for filing a report include:

1. Anonymous and Third Party Reporting

   The Title IX Officer and Deputy Coordinators and Campus Safety & Security accept anonymous and third-party reports of conduct alleged to violate this policy and will follow up on such reports. If reported to Campus Safety & Security, that office shares such reports with the Title IX Officer or Title IX Deputy. The individual making the report is encouraged to provide as much detailed information as possible to allow the Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinators and where applicable, Campus Safety & Security, to investigate and respond as appropriate. The ability of the College to investigate an anonymous or third party report may be limited unless sufficient information is provided.

2. Confidential Reporting

   If a reporting party would like the details of an incident to be kept confidential, the reporting party may speak with counselors, health service providers, complainant services advocates, domestic violence resources, local or state assistance agencies, or members of the clergy who are permitted by law to maintain confidentiality (except in extreme cases of immediacy of threat or danger or abuse of a minor). These sources will submit anonymous statistical information for timely warning and Clery Act purposes. If a reporting party is unsure of a resource’s ability to maintain confidentiality, the reporting party is advised to ask them before talking to them. Dr. Lou Muggeo, Director of Counseling and Psychological Services; Ms. Eileen Mastrovito, Director of Health Services; and Rabbi Daniel Pernick, Campus Minister are the three confidential reporters currently employed by the College.

The Office of Counseling and Psychological Services for students, the Employee Assistance Program for employees and the Center for Safety and Change for everyone, are available to help free of charge and can be seen on an emergency basis during their hours of operation.

3. Private Reporting

Reports to College employees who are not confidential resources listed above in Section III.A.2. will be treated with the maximum possible privacy. If a reporting party is unsure of a resource’s ability to maintain privacy, the reporting party is advised to ask them before talking to them. The resource will be able to explain the resource’s reporting obligations and help a reporting party make decisions about who is in the best position to help. If personally identifiable information is shared, it will be shared with as few people as possible under the circumstances and efforts will be made to protect privacy to the greatest extent reasonably possible.

However, the College reserves the right to investigate and pursue resolution when it is deemed necessary to protect the interests of the College community. A student or employee who initially requests privacy and who requests that the College not investigate or pursue resolution later may request that the College investigate and pursue resolution. Reports filed with Campus Safety and Security will be noted in a log that is made public within two (2) business days of the date of the report. No names or other information that could reveal the identity of the individuals involved will be made public in the Campus Safety and Security log.

4. Formal Reporting

You may report an incident to any College employee with whom you are comfortable speaking. They will help you connect with the Office of Campus Safety and Security and the Title IX Officer to begin the College’s process.
You have the right and can expect to have incidents of sexual misconduct taken seriously by the institution when formally reported, and to have those incidents investigated and properly resolved through administrative procedures. Formal reporting means that only people who need to know will be told and information will be shared only as necessary with investigators, witnesses, and the accused individual.

We strongly recommend that complainants report the incident to Campus Safety and Security since its personnel are on campus 24 hours each day and immediately begin to address the situation. However, if you feel more comfortable reporting it to the Title IX officer, Deputy Title IX Coordinator, another College employee or an RA, once you formally report an incident, the College official to whom you reported it is obligated to notify the Title IX Officer, who will initiate an investigation.

Filing a formal complaint under the College’s procedure will not obligate the complainant to pursue the complaint to a final determination nor will it subject the complainant to scrutiny or judgmental opinions from any College personnel involved in the investigation and/or resolution of the complaint.

Filing a report will:
- Ensure that a complainant receives assistance in securing medical treatment and tests should they desire to seek care
- Provide the opportunity for collection of evidence
- Assure the complainant is provided with information on how to access free confidential counseling

When a sexual misconduct/assault complainant contacts the Title IX Officer, Title IX Coordinator or Office of Campus Safety and Security or another College administrator, it is up to the complainant to determine if a law enforcement agency is contacted. The individual to whom the complaint was made will provide the complainant with a pamphlet outlining the resources available to the individual.

5. Criminal Reporting

If someone is in immediate danger or just became a victim of a crime call 9-1-1. In a non-emergency situation, contact the local police authority. Some acts of sexual misconduct may constitute crimes, such as sexual assault or stalking. Allegations of criminal conduct should be reported to law enforcement agencies.
enforcement even when it is not clear whether the conduct rises to the level of a crime. Regardless, law enforcement can assist with obtaining medical care, getting immediate law enforcement response and protection, connecting with complainant advocate services and counseling support, initiating a criminal investigation as appropriate and answering questions about the criminal process. Students have a right to file simultaneously a criminal complaint with law enforcement and a sexual misconduct complaint with the College.

B. Informal Resolution Process

Informal resolution is an alternative to the formal complaint resolution process. The Title IX Officer will determine whether informal resolution is appropriate based on the willingness of the parties and the nature of the alleged conduct. Sanctions generally are not pursued as the result of an informal resolution process, though the parties may agree to appropriate remedial actions. The Title IX Officer will keep records of any resolution that is reached. The College reserves the right to terminate the informal resolution process if information received indicates that a formal investigation or other remedial actions or sanctions may be necessary and appropriate.

It is not necessary to pursue informal resolution first in order to make a formal complaint, and any participant in an informal resolution process may stop that process at any time and request to continue through the formal process.

C. Formal Resolution Process

The College will strive to investigate complaints and make determinations as expeditiously as possible. Absent extraordinary circumstances the process from intake of complaint to final disposition, excluding any appeals, ordinarily will be completed in 60 days. The Title IX Officer may grant extensions when extenuating circumstances arise.

1. Filing a Complaint

Any individual who believes that this policy has been violated should contact the Title IX Officer or any Title IX Deputy Coordinator, or Office of Campus Safety and Security.

Following receipt of notice or a complaint under this policy, the Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinator will make an initial determination as to whether the information has merit to reasonably indicate there may have been a violation of College policy. An investigation will be pursued if there is sufficient information to suggest a likelihood of a policy violation, a pattern of misconduct, and/or a perceived threat of further harm to the community or any of its members. If the complaint does not appear to allege a policy violation then the complaint will not proceed to a plenary investigation.

When an investigation is commenced, individuals trained in GBSM investigations from Campus Safety & Security will lead the investigation, and as appropriate be aided by the Title IX or Deputy Title IX Coordinator.

Fact finding may be placed on hold temporarily at the request of law enforcement. Initial notice of an inquiry may be provided to the person complained against during a preliminary inquiry or during any additional fact finding.

a. Complaint Intake By Title Officer, Title IX Deputy Coordinators or Campus Safety & Security Personnel

The complaint intake process generally would include:

- Describing the purpose of the investigation and the interview
- Reviewing the institutional policy(s) at issue, if known
- Providing information on resources available to the complainant
- Emphasizing the non-retaliation policy if appropriate
- Review the privacy and anonymity policies
- Interviewing parties
- Interviewing witnesses
- Compiling statements
- Verifying statements
- Gathering/obtaining documentation
- Testing medical evidence
- Research
- Drafting a report
b. Interim Action

Where appropriate, the College may implement interim and/or protective actions upon notice of alleged GSBM or retaliation. Such actions are not based upon a determination of responsibility for conduct violative of this policy or as punishment. Rather, they are implemented when the College determines that they are necessary to, for example, prevent inappropriate interaction between a complainant and an individual accused of violating this policy, prevent retaliation or the recurrence of alleged misconduct, defuse a hostile educational environment, etc.

When practicable, the College endeavors to conduct preliminary interviews with the complainant and the individual accused of violating this policy before implementing interim actions.

Because interim actions are not based upon a determination of responsibility, the College strives to craft interim actions in a manner that causes the minimum disruption to the educational activities of the individual accused of violating this policy that is necessary to achieve those objectives. Since additional information may become available to inform judgments concerning the necessity or continuing necessity for interim actions as procedures under this policy progress, determinations concerning interim actions are subject to review in the discretion of the College. Individuals affected by interim actions may address requests for the modification of actions to the Title IX Officer.

In instances in which it ultimately is determined that this policy has been violated with respect to any member of the community, guest, or visitor, the College may implement additional prompt remedial and/or disciplinary sanctions, as appropriate.

Interim actions may include but are not limited to: no contact orders, no trespass notices, the provision of counseling and/or medical services, academic support, living arrangement adjustments, the provision of a campus escort, academic or work schedule and assignment adjustments, safety planning, and referral to campus and community resources.

The College may suspend, on an interim basis, a student or student organization or place an employee on administrative leave pending the completion of the investigation and related procedures. Violation of interim actions will be grounds for disciplinary action.

During an interim suspension or administrative leave, a student or employee may be denied access to College housing and/or the College campus, facilities, academic and other activities or events, either entirely or with specific restrictions. At the discretion of the appropriate administrative officer, alternative coursework options may be pursued to ensure as minimal an impact as possible on a respondent student. At the discretion of the appropriate administrative officer, alternative employment/work options may be pursued to ensure as minimal an impact as possible on a respondent employee.

2. Notice of Charges

Once an investigator has been assigned, written notice of the allegations will be provided to the parties involved.

3. Investigation

If a complainant wishes to pursue a formal complaint or if the College determines an investigation is necessary, the Title IX Officer will assign an investigator promptly after determining that a complaint should proceed. The College’s objective is to conduct thorough and unbiased investigations, which generally will entail interviews with relevant parties and witnesses, and the collection of other available evidence. The College strives to complete investigations as expeditiously as is practicable. The College may be required to suspend witness interviews and some investigative activities for a limited period of time if and when requested by law enforcement. With such limitations, the College’s process generally will continue regardless of the status of civil or criminal charges involving the same incident.

a. Student Withdrawal While Charges Pending

Should a responding student decide to withdraw from the College and/or not participate in the investigation and/or administrative review process, the process nonetheless will proceed to resolution in the student’s absence and that student will not be permitted to return to the College unless any and all remedial actions have been satisfied. The Title IX Officer will continue to act to promptly and effectively remedy the effects of the conduct upon the complainant and the community.
b. Employee Resignation While Charges Pending

Should a responding employee resign while allegations are pending, the records of the Title IX Officer will reflect that status. Should an employee decide to leave and not participate in the investigation and/or administrative review process, the process nonetheless will proceed to resolution in the employee’s absence and that employee will not be permitted to return to the College’s employ unless any and all remedial actions have been satisfied. The Title IX Officer will continue to act to promptly and effectively remedy the effects of the conduct upon the complainant and the community.

At the conclusion of the fact finding process, a report/summary is prepared and submitted to the Title IX Officer and, as appropriate, Deputy Title IX Coordinator.

4. ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW

The Title IX Officer will forward the investigative report/summary to an Administrative Reviewer or his/her designee should he/she be unable to review the matter due to unavailability or conflict of interest. The Administrative Reviewer shall review complaints, factual summaries, or other written submissions and, after hearing and considering the accounts of the parties and witnesses, recommend to the Title IX Officer an outcome (that is, whether or not the respondent is responsible for a violation of this policy) and, if appropriate, sanctions. In matters related to students, the Administrative Reviewer shall be Maria Coupe, Associate Director of Human Resources. In matters involving employees, the Administrative Reviewer generally shall be a Vice President other than the Vice President to whom the employee reports. Conflicts of interest involving the Administrative Reviewer should be disclosed and any allegations of a conflict of interest should be raised and resolved on a timely basis. The Administrative Reviewer will have training and/or experience in handling complaints, including sexual harassment and misconduct complaints, as well as in administering the College’s policies and procedures. Individuals qualified by training and/or experience may serve, as necessary, as investigators, mediators, or Administrative Reviewers, but cannot assume more than one role in a single matter.

An administrative review is not a formal trial; therefore, the Administrative Reviewer may ask to convene a review session at which all parties and their supporters are present. The Administrative Reviewer asks the questions, etc., not the parties involved. Formal rules of evidence are not applicable to this process. The Reviewer may ask for written statements instead of appearances, and take other reasonable action, such as use of remote technology for party or witness appearances in order to expedite the review or ensure fairness. Both parties may make a statement and submit questions to the Administrative Reviewer for consideration. The Administrative Reviewer has the authority and responsibility to exclude testimony or information not pertinent to the complaint. Irrelevant testimony to be excluded includes past sexual history of the complainant. In his/her discretion, the Administrative Reviewer also may call any witnesses, or request that other pertinent information, be presented in his/her discretion. Review sessions will be recorded.

Witnesses are permitted in the room only when summoned by the Administrative Reviewer to provide a statement/evidence. Each party may be accompanied by a supporter of his or her choosing. The supporter may not be a witness and is permitted to attend, but not advocate or otherwise participate in the Administrative Review. The supporter may not ask questions, respond on behalf of the party, give any non-verbal signals to the party or present objections or arguments.

Complainant’s and Respondent’s Rights and Responsibilities connected to an Administrative Review:

1. To read the investigative report/summary in advance of the Administrative Review session;

2. To identify to the Administrative Reviewer in advance of the Administrative Review session witnesses who have relevant information that should be heard in the session;

3. To identify to the Administrative Reviewer in advance of the Administrative Review session questions to be asked of other parties and witnesses;

4. To identify to the Administrative Reviewer in advance of the Administrative Review session relevant documents or other evidence that should be considered in the session;

5. To invite a supporter of her or his choosing to accompany her or him to the Administrative Review;

6. To remain present throughout the proceeding (excluding deliberations);

7. Not to have to sit directly across from or next to the other party;
8. To respond to questions about the facts of the case posed by the reviewer;

9. Not to have the complainant's past sexual history or respondent’s irrelevant past sexual history discussed during the proceedings;

10. To be informed promptly of the outcome of the Administrative Review; and

11. To keep the outcome of the Administrative Review confidential, except for required notifications.

The scheduling of administrative review sessions is consigned to the discretion of the Administrative Reviewer. To avoid delay in the process, the rescheduling of review sessions to accommodate scheduling conflicts of supporters generally should be avoided.

a. For Students

Following the review, the decision of whether a policy violation has occurred will be determined by applying the preponderance of the evidence standard. A finding of a policy violation by a preponderance of the evidence means that it is more likely than not that the alleged policy violation occurred. If, following the review, the decision is that no policy violation has occurred, the process will end after appropriate notifications are issued. Regardless of the outcome, the complainant, the respondent, and the Title IX Officer will be notified of the finding in writing.

If, following the Administrative Review, the student is found to have violated College policy, appropriate disciplinary sanctions will be recommended by the Administrative Reviewer to the Title IX Officer. The Title IX Officer will make the final decision on sanctions and notify the Administrative Reviewer, who in turn will make required written notifications with copies to the Title IX Officer.

b. For Employees

Following the review, the decision of whether a policy violation has occurred will be made by applying the preponderance of the evidence standard. A finding of a policy violation by a preponderance of the evidence means that it is more likely than not that the alleged policy violation occurred. If, following the review, the decision is that no policy violation has occurred the process will end after appropriate notifications are issued. Regardless of the outcome, the complainant, the respondent, and the Title IX Officer will be notified of the finding in writing.
If, following the Administrative Review, the employee is found to have violated College policy, appropriate disciplinary sanctions will be recommended by the Administrative Reviewer to the Title IX Officer. The Title IX Officer will make the final decision on sanctions and notify the Administrative Reviewer, who in turn will make required written notifications with copies to the Title IX Officer.

5. SANCTIONS
Sanctions will be determined by the Title IX Officer and forwarded to the Administrative Reviewer for implementation. As appropriate the Title IX Officer may consult with other College administrators.

Except in the case of oral reprimands, the affected students and employees will be notified in writing of the sanction. Copies of sanction correspondence related to students are maintained in the Office of Student Development files. Copies of sanction correspondence related to employees are maintained in the Office of Human Resources files.

Factors considered when determining a sanction may include:
- The nature and severity of, and circumstances surrounding, the violation
- The respondent’s disciplinary history
- Previously founded complaints or allegations against the respondent involving similar conduct
- Any other information deemed relevant by the Title IX Officer
- The need to bring an end to the sexual misconduct and/or retaliation
- The need to prevent the future recurrence of sexual misconduct and/or retaliation
- The need to remedy the effects of the sexual misconduct and/or retaliation on the complainant and the community

a. Student Sanctions
Among others as appropriate, the following sanctions may be imposed upon students who have been found to have violated this policy.

i. Reprimand - the student is told orally that his/her behavior was inappropriate and that behavioral changes are expected.
ii. Written letter of warning - the student is warned that behavior changes are expected and that absent such changes additional consequences will result.

iii. Residential review - the student is advised that any further violation of this policy or of any other College policy may render the student ineligible for on-campus housing for the next term.

iv. Residential relocation – the relocation of a student to another area of on-campus housing.

v. Removal from residence - this action removes the student from on-campus housing either permanently or temporarily.

vi. Disciplinary Probation - the student is advised that any further violation of this policy will result in further sanctions. The probationary status continues for a stated period of time and may include specific restrictions on the student.

   During such probation, the student generally shall not be permitted to hold office in any student group or organization. If deemed appropriate, the student also may be subject to restriction of privileges.

   Additional restrictions or conditions also may be imposed. Further, modifications to the standard restrictions of disciplinary probation may be made on a case-by-case basis and only for extenuating circumstances.

   Violation of any term of disciplinary probation subjects a student to immediate suspension or expulsion (dismissal) from the College.

vii. Disciplinary suspension - the student is advised that he/she is being suspended due to a violation of this policy. Suspension shall mean exclusion from classes, from presence on campus and from all other privileges or activities for a definite period of time, but may include conditions that must be satisfied before active student status is resumed.

viii. Expulsion - means immediate dismissal from the College.

ix. Restrictions of Privileges and imposition of Special Conditions - Students also may have their privileges restricted or special conditions imposed upon them. Such restrictions and/or imposed conditions may be implemented as “stand alone” sanctions, or in combination with other sanctions. Examples include but are not limited to being:

- Prohibited from participating in specified, or all extracurricular activities.
- Prohibited from being present in areas on campus where alcohol is served.
- Prohibited from being present on particular parts of the campus (e.g., residence halls).
- Prohibited from being on campus at specified times.
- Suspended or dismissed from on-campus residence.
- Prohibited from having contact with specific individuals (“Stay Away Orders”).
- Required to complete an educational project.
- Required to complete community service or restorative activities.
- Required to pay restitution or compensation.
- Required to undergo a psychological or psychiatric evaluation.
- Required to meet with specified College employees.
- Required to provide appropriate medical documentation.

b. Employee Sanctions
Sanctions for an employee who has been found to have violated this policy may include, but are not limited to:

i. Reprimand - the employee is told orally that his/her behavior was inappropriate and that behavioral changes are expected.

ii. Written letter of warning - the employee is warned that his/her behavior was inappropriate and that behavior changes are expected.

iii. Disciplinary Probation - a sanction consisting of a written statement to an employee offender that he/she has violated a particular College policy, rule or regulation, and that further violations will result in a more severe sanction, such as suspension or dismissal.
iv. Reassignment – indefinite or permanent involuntary placement of an employee in a position other than his/her current position. The new assignment may be at the same level of responsibility/pay as the current assignment or at a lower level of responsibility/pay.

v. Disciplinary suspension - an involuntary unpaid suspension from work, from presence on campus and from all other employee privileges or activities for a definite period of time for disciplinary reasons.

vi. Termination - the immediate severance of the employment relationship with the College.

6. APPEALS

Appeals of the decision of the Administrative Reviewer and/or sanctions determined by the Title IX Officer may be submitted by the complainant or the respondent or both. All requests for appeal considerations must be submitted in writing to the Title IX Officer within three business days after the date of the final written notice.

The grounds for appeal are limited to the following:

- A procedural error or omission occurred that significantly impacted the outcome.

- There is new evidence, unknown or unavailable during the Administrative Review, that could substantially impact the finding or sanction. A summary of this new evidence and its potential impact upon the investigation must be included in the appeal.

- The sanctions imposed are substantially disproportionate to the severity of the violation.

The original finding and sanction/responsive actions (if applicable) will stand if the appeal is not timely or is not based on the grounds listed above, and such a finding and sanction/responsive action(s) are final. When a party requests an appeal, the other party (parties) will be notified and given an opportunity to respond.

For students: In cases involving student conduct, a Vice President other than the Vice President of Student Development will review the appeal request(s).

For employees: In cases involving employee conduct, the President will review the appeal request(s).
Where the individual designated to review the appeal finds that at least one of the grounds is met, additional principles governing the hearing of appeals include the following:

- The original decision will be changed only when there is a compelling justification to do so.

- Appeals are not intended to be full re-hearings of the complaint. Appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the original review session and pertinent documentation regarding the grounds for appeal.

- Sanctions will not be imposed pending the outcome of the appeal. Interim and/or protective actions may be imposed and/or continued during the appeal process, as appropriate.

- The individual designated to review the appeal will render a decision within five business days and provide written notice of the determination on appeal to the complainant, the respondent and the Title IX Officer within two business days from the date of the appeal decision, stating the grounds on which the appeal was accepted or rejected and the results of the decision. Once an appeal is decided, the outcome is final: further appeals are not permitted under this policy.

7. Failure to Complete Sanctions
   All respondents are expected to comply with conduct sanctions within the time frame specified in their written notice. Failure to follow through on conduct sanctions by the date specified, whether by refusal, neglect, or any other reason, may result in additional sanctions and/or suspension, expulsion, and/or termination from the College. For students, the consequences of failure to comply may include being subject to a Code of Conduct hearing, and/or a hold to prevent future registration. For employees, the consequences of failure to comply may include disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

IV. Reporting Responsibilities

   All College employees who are aware of or witness GBSM, or retaliation are required to promptly report to the Title IX Officer or any Title IX Deputy Coordinator. Any student who is aware of or who witnesses GBSM, or retaliation is encouraged to promptly report to the Title IX Officer or any Title IX Deputy Coordinator. All initial contacts will be treated with the maximum possible privacy: specific information on any complaint received by any party will be reported to the Title IX Officer, but, subject to the College’s obligation to investigate and redress violations, every reasonable effort will be made to maintain the privacy of those initiating a report of a complaint. In all cases, the College will give consideration to the complainant with respect to how the complaint is pursued but reserves the right, when necessary to protect the community, to investigate and pursue a resolution when a complainant chooses not to initiate or participate in a formal complaint.

Please note: This section addresses reporting obligations for members of our campus community who are made aware of potential violations of this policy. Methods for filing a complaint and the Complaint Resolution Process are detailed in Section III.

A. Title IX Officer and Deputy Coordinators

College Title IX Officer:
Patricia Pacchiana, Sr. Executive Director of Human Resources, Borelli Hall 206E, 845-398-4044, ppacchia@stac.edu

B. Role of the Title IX Officer and Deputy Coordinators

The Title IX Officer and Deputy Coordinators do not serve as advocates for either the complainant or the respondent. The Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinators will explain to both parties the informal and formal processes outlined below and the provisions for confidentiality. Where appropriate, the Title IX Officer or Deputy Coordinators will provide to both parties information on options for obtaining advocacy, medical and counseling services, and making criminal reports, and will assist with providing information on other resources. The Title IX Officer and Deputy Coordinators will coordinate with other campus officials to take appropriate interim actions such as no contact orders, academic accommodations, and rearrangement of housing, dining, and work assignments.
C. Police/Campus Safety & Security Reporting

In addition to required campus reporting, reports may also be made to the police, especially if a crime is or may be involved, by calling the following numbers:

- Orangetown Police Department, 845-379-3700

D. Federal Timely Warning Obligations

Complainants of GBSM should be aware that College administrators must issue crime alerts for incidents reported to them that represent a serious or continuing threat to students or employees. The College will withhold a complainant’s name and other identifying information while providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the potential danger.

V. Remedial Actions

In addition to the interim actions outlined in Section III.C.1.b, the Title IX Officer (or designee) may implement remedial action intended to address the short- or long-term effects of harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation. That is, remedial action may be taken at the conclusion of the process in addition to any actions that may have been taken on an interim basis, in order to redress harm to the complainant and the community and to prevent further harassment or violations. Remedial actions also may be used when, in the judgment of the Title IX Officer (or designee), the safety or well-being of any member(s) of the campus community may be jeopardized by the presence on campus of the respondent or the ongoing activity of a student organization whose behavior is in question.

These remedies may include referral to counseling and health services or to the Employee Assistance Program, education to the community, altering the housing situation of a respondent student or resident employee (or the alleged complainant, if desired), altering work arrangements, providing campus escorts, implementing contact limitations between the parties, or offering adjustments to academic deadlines and/or course schedules.
VI. Statement of Rights for Complainants and Respondents

Both complainants and respondents will be afforded the following rights under this policy:

- To be treated with respect by College officials
- To take advantage of campus support resources (such as Counseling Services and College Health Services for students, or EAP services for employees)
- To experience a safe educational and work environment
- To have an advisor (students) or representative (employees) during this process
- To refuse to have an allegation resolved through informal procedures
- To be free from retaliation
- To have complaints heard in substantial accordance with these procedures
- To reasonable and necessary participation in the process

VII. Records

In implementing this policy, records of all complaints, resolutions, and administrative reviews will be kept by the Title IX Officer.

IX. Prevention and Education

The administration, faculty, and staff of St. Thomas Aquinas College firmly believe and act upon the principles of prevention education. For students and employees education begins in orientation.

Students
The first action of prevention occurs during new student orientation. Incoming students are educated as to what sexual misconduct/assault is, the laws regarding sexual misconduct/assault, ways of reducing the risk of becoming a complainant of GSBM and procedures for getting help should they encounter any form of GSBM. In addition, informational sessions/programs are held during the year on timely topics, such as date rape prevention, self-defense, managing your drinking and behavior, etc.

Employees
The first action of prevention occurs during new employee orientation. New employees are required to view on-line training programs on the topics of Sexual Harassment and Title IX. In addition, special training is given to individuals who hold responsibility for insuring compliance with our Anti-Harassment and Sexual Misconduct policies. Informational programs/sessions are held during the year for employees. In addition, College employees also are invited to attend programs presented by the Office of Student Development on related topics; in addition to having seminars presented through the Office of Human Resources.

X. Federal Statistical Reporting Obligations

Certain campus officials have a duty to report sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking for federal statistical reporting purposes (Clery Act). All personally identifiable information is kept confidential, but statistical information must be passed along to campus safety and security regarding the type of incident and its general location (on or off-campus, in the surrounding area, but no addresses are given) for publication in the annual Campus Security Report. This report helps to provide the community with a clear picture of the extent and nature of campus crime and to ensure greater community safety. Mandated federal reporters include: student/conduct affairs, campus safety and security, local police, coaches, athletic directors, residence life staff, student activities staff, human resources staff, advisors to student organizations and any other official with significant responsibility for student and campus activities. The information to be shared includes the date, the location of the incident (using Clery location categories) and the Clery crime category. This reporting protects the identity of the complainant and may be done anonymously.

XI. Federal Timely Warning Reporting Obligations

Complainants of GSM also should be aware that College administrators must issue immediate timely warnings for incidents reported to them that are confirmed to pose a substantial threat of bodily harm or danger to members of the campus community. The College will make every effort to ensure that a complainant’s name and other identifying information are not disclosed, while still providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the danger. ADDENDUM B

Risk Reduction and Prevention Safety

Common sense, situational awareness and trusting your instincts will reduce the risk of sexual assault. The tips below may help decrease the potential likelihood of sexual assault:

- If you consume alcohol, do so in moderation.
- Do not leave your beverage unattended or accept a drink from an open container.
- When you are with someone, communicate clearly to ensure he or she knows your limits and/or expectations from the beginning. Both verbal and nonverbal (body language) communication can be used to ensure the message is understood.
- If you go on a date with someone you do not know very well, tell a close friend what your plans are.
- You have the right to say "No" even if you:
  - First say “Yes,” and then change your mind
  - Have had sex with this partner before
  - Have been kissing or "making out"
  - Are wearing what is perceived to be “provocative” clothing
- Always have extra money to get home. Have a plan for someone you can call if you need help.
- If you feel uncomfortable, scared or pressured, say "Stop it" or leave and call for help.
- When you go to a party, go with a group of friends. Arrive together, watch out for each other and leave together.
- Be aware of your surroundings at all times.
- Do not allow yourself to be isolated with a person you do not know or trust.
- Travel with a friend or in a group.
- Walk only in lighted areas after dark.
- Keep the doors to homes, dormitories and cars locked.
- Know where the phone is located.
Bystander Risk Reduction

How to be an Active Bystander

Bystanders play a critical role in the prevention of sexual and relationship violence. They are "individuals who observe violence or witness the conditions that perpetuate violence. They are not directly involved but have the choice to intervene, speak up, or do something about it."

We want to promote a culture of community accountability in which bystanders are actively engaged in the prevention of violence without causing further harm. We may not always know what to do even if we want to help. Below is a list of some ways to be an active bystander.

1. If you or someone else is in immediate danger, dial 911. This could be when a person is yelling at or being physically abusive towards another and it is not safe for you to interrupt.
2. Watch out for your friends and fellow students/employees. If you see someone who looks like they could be in trouble or need help, ask if they are ok.
3. Confront people who seclude, hit on, try to make out with, or have sex with people who are incapacitated.
4. Speak up when someone discusses plans to take sexual advantage of another person.
5. Believe someone who discloses sexual assault, abusive behavior, or experience with stalking.
6. Refer people to on- or off-campus resources listed in this document for support in health, counseling or with legal assistance.
ADDENDUM C:
TIMELY WARNING POLICY

Title: Timely Warning Policy
Effective: July 1, 2010

The St. Thomas Aquinas College Campus Safety and Security Department will post timely warning notices for the College Community to notify members of the community about serious crimes against people that occur on campus, where it determined that the incident may pose an ongoing threat to members of the STAC community. These warnings will be posted if the incident is reported to the Campus Safety and Security Department or to a campus security authority or Orangetown Police Department, if they notify us about a serious crime that occurred on campus.

The department issues/posts Crime Alerts for incidents of:
1. Murder
2. Aggravated assault (cases involving assaults among known parties, such as two roommates fighting which results in aggravated injury, will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis to determine if the individual is believed to be an ongoing threat to the larger community)
3. Robbery involving force or violence (cases including pick pocketing and purse snatching typically will not result in the issuance of a Crime Alert, but will be assessed on a case-by-case basis)
4. Sexual Assault (considered on a case-by-case basis depending on the facts of the case, when the incident occurred verses when it was reported and the amount of information known by STAC Campus Safety)
5. Major incidents of arson
6. Other crimes as determined necessary by Dean of students, Director of Campus Safety and Security Department or Assistant Director of Campus Safety and Security Department

STAC will generate Crime Alerts using the e2 Campus text messaging system or a blast e-mail to the College community. Crime Alerts also may be posted in campus buildings, when deemed necessary. When a crime alert is posted in campus buildings, they are printed on large paper and are posted in the lobby/entrance area of the affected building(s) for seven (7) days. A list of the buildings in which the alerts may be posted is maintained by the Director of Campus Safety and Security Department and the Assistant Director of Campus Safety and Security Department.

The Director will send a copy of the Crime Alert to the President of the College for review and possible distribution to the members of the Board of Trustees, as deemed necessary and appropriate. Crime Alerts are filed with the corresponding incident report.
The Campus Safety and Security Department does not issue Crime Alerts for the above listed crimes if:

1. The subject(s) is apprehended and the threat of imminent danger for members of the STAC community has been mitigated by the apprehension.

2. If a report was not filed with the Campus Safety and Security Department or if the Campus Safety and Security Department did not receive notice in a manner that would allow the posting of a “timely” warning for the STAC community. This type of situation will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

The Campus Safety and Security Department also maintains a daily crime log which normally is updated each business day and contains all crimes reported to the Campus Safety and Security Department.

ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

A. ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY AND PROCEDURES

1. Policy Statement:

St. Thomas Aquinas College is committed to a working and learning environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Every member of our campus community has the right to work and learn in a professional atmosphere that promotes equal employment opportunities and prohibits discriminatory practices, including harassment. Therefore, St. Thomas Aquinas College expects all members of the College community to assume responsibility for ensuring that all decisions and interactions among students, employees and other members of the community are free of unlawful bias, prejudice and harassment.

The College also is committed to the principles of academic freedom and recognizes that enthusiastic discussion and debate, as well as open inquiry and free expression, foster critical thinking skills and are essential in an academic environment. This policy will be administered in an endeavor to recognize both objectives and to provide all protections recognized under the law.

2. Scope of Applicability:

This policy applies to all members of the College community, individuals doing business with the College, and any person utilizing or visiting campus facilities. This will include St. Thomas Aquinas’ campus, any off-site facilities where the College’s business is conducted, and work-related travel. In addition, harassment by electronic means, such as by telephone, email, Internet postings, or other messaging means is prohibited to the same extent as in-person conduct.

3. Definition of Harassment:

Harassment is any verbal, non-verbal or physical conduct directed at an individual because of traits protected under federal, state or local law, including, but not limited to: a person's gender, race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, creed, physical or mental disability, marital status, age, sexual orientation, genetic predisposition, military status, domestic violence victim status or any other basis protected by federal, state or local law, that is severe and/or persistent and is likely to interfere significantly with an individual’s work or education, or adversely affect an individual's living conditions on campus and create an intimidating, offensive or hostile environment. Isolated incidents (e.g., a single comment) ordinarily will not constitute harassment. However, a single sexual advance may constitute harassment if it is linked to the granting or denial of employment benefits. Also, a single incident involving conduct of a physical nature may constitute harassment.

“Quid pro quo” harassment, arises where submission to harassment is used as a basis for employment decisions or academic advancement (e.g., promotions, raises, better working hours, grades, special accommodations, etc., are linked to compliance with sexual advances).
Therefore, only someone who possesses authority to grant or deny such benefits can engage in “quid pro quo” harassment.

“Hostile work or learning environment” harassment arises where the harassing conduct creates an offensive and unpleasant working or learning environment for a person to whom harassing conduct is directed or for other persons whose environment is affected by, for example, observing the harassing conduct.

4. Prohibited Activity:

In accordance with applicable law, St. Thomas Aquinas College prohibits all forms of harassment which includes any unwelcome conduct, whether verbal, physical, or visual, that is directed at an individual because of any trait protected by law. Such conduct is unlawful and prohibited whenever it affects tangible job benefits, unreasonably interferes with an individual's work or academic performance, or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working or learning environment.

Examples of Prohibited Sexually Harassing and Other Unlawful Harassing Conduct:

- Verbal or physical conduct designed to threaten, intimidate, or coerce. This may include verbal taunting (including racial and ethnic slurs or negative stereotyping) or physical actions which impair the employee's ability to perform his or her job or interfere with the employee's or student's work or academic performance.

- Distribution, display or discussion of any written or graphic material that ridicules, denigrates insults, belittles, or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group because of protected status.

- Verbal or physical conduct designed to threaten, intimidate or deter an employee or student from reporting potential harassment.

- Offensive or derogatory comments or jokes.

- Any conduct involving “kidding” or “teasing,” or “practical jokes” based on a person's race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, creed, physical or mental disability, marital status, age, sexual orientation, genetic predisposition, military status, domestic violence victim status or any other basis protected by federal, state or local law.

- Blocking someone's path or impeding movement or otherwise using unwarranted physical force to restrict the freedom of movement of another person.

- Deliberate destruction of another's property.

- Overt threats or intimidation.

- Discrimination in the provision of employment opportunities, benefits or privileges or in any education program or activity based on one of the enumerated protected traits.
• Use of discriminatory evaluative standards in employment or academic evaluation based on one of the enumerated protected traits.

• Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors or repeated requests for dates.

• Vulgar or lewd comments or jokes.

• Graphic or sexual comments about an individual’s dress or body.

• The use of sexually degrading words to describe an individual.

• Physical contacts such as patting, pinching, or repeated brushing against another’s body.

• Promise or provision of promotions, raises, better working hours, better grades, or special accommodations based on compliance with sexual advances or harassment.

• Any other unwelcome written, verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
  o There is a promise or implied promise of preferential treatment or negative consequence regarding employment decisions or status, e.g., promotions, raises, better working hours, better grades, or special accommodations.
  o Such conduct has the effect of creating an intimidating or hostile or offensive work or academic environment, or unreasonably interferes with a person’s work or academic performance.
  o The sexual conduct or communication of others offends a third party.

Sexual Harassment may occur between members of the same or opposite sex. Further, harassment based upon a person’s sex is not limited to instances involving sexual behavior. That is, harassment on the basis of sex may occur without sexual advances or sexual overtones when conduct is directed at individuals or groups because of their sex. This often is referred to as sex or gender harassment and violates this policy.

The harasser can be the victim’s supervisor, an agent of the employer, a supervisor in another area, a co-worker, student or a non-employee.

5. Responsibility:

For Employees: The Senior Executive Director of Human Resources is responsible for assuring institutional compliance with this policy and with any applicable federal and state laws with respect to claims of illegal discrimination and harassment as they relate to incidents other than those that are determined to be gender based, or of a sexual nature.

The College will investigate all incidents promptly and in an impartial manner. The individual reporting the discrimination or harassment will be interviewed to establish what has occurred, who was directly involved in the incident(s) and other individuals who may have witnessed the incident(s).

While it is not possible to maintain absolute confidentiality and still effectively investigate a discrimination or harassment complaint, the investigation will involve only those persons who have necessary information or a legitimate need to know in order to investigate and address the situation fully, and comply with the College’s legal obligations.

The individual who reported gender-based or sexual-harassment will be advised of the results of the investigation. If that individual is not satisfied with the handling of a complaint, he/she may make a written request to the President of the College to review the matter.

Investigations into reports or complaints of gender-based discrimination or harassment and reports of or complaints of a sexual nature are processed in accordance with procedures outlined in the College’s Gender-Based and Sexual Misconduct policy.
9. No Retaliation for Reporting or Participating in Investigations:

Retaliation against any faculty member, administrator, staff member, student, member of the public or applicant for employment for reporting any instance of harassment or for participating in an investigation is strictly prohibited.

Any employee or individual who has filed a complaint of harassment, who has reported witnessing harassment or who has participated in the harassment complaint process and feels he or she has been subjected to adverse actions as a result should report this to the Senior Executive Director of Human Resources. However, allegations proven to have been made falsely and with malicious intent are violations of College policy, and will be treated as a serious matter.

Any student who has filed a complaint of harassment, who has reported witnessing harassment or who has participated in the harassment complaint process and feels he or she has been subjected to adverse actions as a result should report this to the Vice President and Dean of Student Development. However, allegations proven to have been made falsely and with malicious intent are violations of College policy, and will be treated as a serious matter.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF ORDER
St. Thomas Aquinas College has established regulations on campus conduct, to include:

Tradition of Academic Freedom
The tradition of the College as a sanctuary of academic freedom and center of informed discussion is an honored one, to be guarded vigilantly. The basic significance of that sanctuary lies in the protection of intellectual freedoms: the rights of professors to teach, or scholars to engage in the advancement of knowledge, of students to learn and express their views, free from external pressures or interference.

Self-restraint and Reciprocity
These freedoms can flourish only in an atmosphere of mutual respect, civility and trust among teachers and students, only when members of the College Community are willing to accept self-restraint and reciprocity as the condition upon which they share in its intellectual autonomy.

College’s Right to Defend Itself
Academic freedom and the sanctuary of the College campus extend to all who share these aims and responsibilities. They cannot be invoked by those who would subordinate intellectual freedom to political ends, or who violate the norms of conduct established to protect that freedom. Against such offenders, the College has the right, and indeed the obligation, to defend itself.

GUIDELINES FOR RETURN TO CAMPUS FOLLOWING A MEDICAL/PSYCHOLOGICAL WITHDRAWAL
Occasionally a student withdraws from college for medical/psychological reasons. Students who do so and wish to return to the college should obtain the “Guidelines for Return to Campus”, which are available in the Office for Student Development.
