

Zoonotic diseases can be spread between animals and humans, causing 2.2 million deaths each year

<https://hd.org/health-topics/health/living-hand-washing>
<https://www.breitbart.com/2142/global-zoonotic-diseases-hotspots.html#:~:text=New%20researcher%20have%20found%2013%20so-called%20zoonoses%20there,and%20death%20occur%20in%20low-%20and%20middle-income%20countries.>

istockphoto.com

Wash your hands after touching pet food to avoid food-borne illnesses, such as Salmonella and Listeriosis.

mentatdgt

Wash your hands after touching, feeding, or picking up after pets

Microorganisms that are carried by pets have caused about 1.5 billion annual diarrheal problems.

istockphoto.com

Make sure to wash your hands after clean out your cat's litter box as it has been linked to the disease

Toxoplasmosis. <https://www.mayoclinic.org/diseases-conditions/toxoplasmosis/symptoms-causes/syc-20356249>

Tranmautritam