Eligibility for Services
Clinical services are available to currently enrolled St. Thomas Aquinas College (STAC) students. Services are free to eligible students.

Counseling & Psychological Services
The Office of Counseling & Psychological Services offers time-limited psychotherapy sessions with a psychologist or qualified mental health professional. Students that are determined to require long-term, intensive treatment and/or who present with issues that require services beyond the scope of the office will be referred to appropriate treatment services off-campus. Referrals are also provided for students who opt to seek outside services. Counseling & Psychological Services does not provide services that require court testimony or involve litigation.

Confidentiality
All communications between the student and psychologist will be held in confidence and will not, except under the circumstances listed below, be disclosed to anyone unless the student gives written authorization to release the information. A copy of the release form is available at the Office of Counseling & Psychological Services.

Limits and Exceptions to Confidentiality
There are legal and ethical exceptions to confidentiality which require that Counseling & Psychological Services staff to take responsible action, which could include breaching confidentiality. The exceptions include:

- When there is a clear and present danger of harm to self or another person. In these circumstances Counseling & Psychological Services is legally required to act in the interest of safety. Actions in these circumstances may include arranging for voluntary or involuntary hospitalization, as well as notifying law enforcement authorities and/or other persons (family, friends, and/or individuals at risk) as deemed appropriate.
- When the clinician has reasonable cause to suspect that a minor or elderly person is being abused or neglected. Counseling & Psychological Services is legally required to report the abuse to Children and Youth Services or other appropriate county and/or state authorities.
- In the event of a court order or other mandatory legal process, the Office of Counseling & Psychological Services may be required to release information contained in the student’s records and/or may be required to testify in a court hearing or proceeding.
- If the mental health practitioner providing services is an intern or extern, the student’s clinician will consult with the Director of Counseling & Psychological Services for clinical supervision. With the exception of clinical supervision, the aforementioned office policies regarding Confidentiality and its Limits and Exceptions apply to student’s receiving services from interns or externs.

If the mental health practitioner providing services is an intern or extern, the student’s clinician will consult with the Director of Counseling & Psychological Services for clinical supervision. With the exception of clinical supervision, the aforementioned office policies regarding Confidentiality and its Limits and Exceptions apply to student’s receiving services from interns or externs.

Clinical Records
Counseling & Psychological Services documents are not part of a student’s educational records. In addition, only Counseling & Psychological Services staff has access to them. If the student submits an Authorization to Release Information form, clinical information can be disclosed to the individual, individuals, and/or agency listed in the release. Disclosure in such cases will be discretionary.

Changing Appointments
If it is necessary to reschedule or cancel an appointment, the Office of Counseling & Psychological Services must be contacted at least 24 hours in advance.

Missed Appointments
Failure to provide 24 hour cancellation notice or not attending a scheduled appointment may result in a rescheduling delay. Frequent cancellations and/or missed appointments may impact a student’s ability to make future appointments at Counseling & Psychological Services. In such cases, the office will provide the student with the option of obtaining an off-campus referral to another licensed mental health professional. Exceptions are made at the discretion of Director of Counseling & Psychological Services for extraordinary circumstances.

Excused Absences/Assignments
The office of Counseling & Psychological Services does not provide excuses for missed classes or assignments.

Electronic Mail Communications
E-mail communications by students are discouraged for matters involving personal or clinical concerns. Students should be aware that confidentiality of e-mail communications cannot be guaranteed. Counseling & Psychological Services staff will not discuss counseling and psychotherapy issues, clinical concerns, or schedule appointments via e-mail.

Research and Evaluation
Counseling & Psychological Services seeks to evaluate and improve its services to students by conducting research and evaluation projects each year. Staff members conducting research and evaluation projects may also take selected information from a student’s file as a part of a project. This activity would always be anonymous and restricted to information relevant to the specific project identified in the student’s Authorization to Release Information form.

Emergencies
Should a crisis or emergency situation arise and Counseling & Psychological Services staff is not available, students on campus are encouraged to call Campus Safety at 845-398-4080 for emergency support. On-campus residents may also contact a member of the Residence Life staff. Additional resources in the community for all students include: 911, Orangetown Police Department (845) 359-3700, Behavioral Health Response Team (845) 517-0400, Crisis Services (845) 384-2200, Rockland Suicide Hotline (845) 354-6500, Bergen County CarePlus NJ (201) 262-HELP (4357).
If you have any questions or are not sure that you are clear about any of these policies, please feel free to discuss it with your psychologist or mental health practitioner.

I have received and read a copy of this consent form and have asked for any needed clarification of the procedures and conditions mentioned. I am satisfied by the explanations and agree to abide by the conditions of this consent form.

______________________________                 ____________
Student’s Signature                             Date

*Students who completed the Clinic Forms online have signed this form digitally.