

Your FAFSA was selected for verification of High School Completion Status by the Department of Education. You must review this document and provide proof of your High School Completion Status. Review the information below for acceptable documentation. Submit the applicable document to St Thomas Aquinas College's Office of Financial Aid along with the required documents as outlined below:

High School Completion Status

Provide one of the following documents that indicate your high school completion status when you will begin college in 2015–2016:

- A copy of your high school diploma.
- A copy of your final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of your General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates you successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- Regardless if state law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), the student must obtain a copy of credential from your assigned school district.

Documents must be forwarded to The Office of Financial Aid:
St Thomas Aquinas College
